BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 965 (Senate Bill No. 13) Printer's No. 46, on page 4 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Wilson,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 965 (Senate Bill No. 13), entitled:

An Act to amend sections thirty-two one hundred and twenty-one and one hundred and thirty-one of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto" by providing that a county shall not lose its classification by means of a decrease in population and that in a county in which the office of controller has been established the same shall not be abolished by reason of a decrease in population

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I sincerely regret the necessity of taking the floor in opposition to a bill that has been regularly passed through the Senate and through the Committee of this House, but a reading of this bill reveals the harm there is in it for the few counties affected under its provisions

The bill affects but three counties at the present time in this Commonwealth. They are Clearfield, my county, Bradford and Potter. If the passage of this bill would affect all of these three counties in like manner, I believe that we could approach the problem from the same angle, but the bill does not affect the other two counties as it does mine, for the reason that my county, under the last census, was a fifth class county, and by virtue of dropping in population is entitled to recede to the sixth class and, therefore it gives to our taxpayers the benefit of the lower salary range.

The bill affects another county in another manner, because that county recedes from sixth to seventh class and still another county which recedes from seventh to eighth class.

Our county, as you know, is in the coal belt, with no hope whatever of a resumption of the soft coal industry to the extent that we can look forward to a return of the population we once had. We came into fifth class counties by a hair, the largest population we had at one time being 103,000. Today we have only 83,000 population, having receded one-sixth in our population, or a total of almost 17,000 It follows that when we lose one-sixth of our population and we lose similarly as to assessments, the cost of county government falls upon the remaining five-sixths of the population remaining there, and that without the increase of millage or the increase of county government in another respect we, who are left, are bound to maintain that cost as designated by the classification of counties.

I think you are all aware that the cost of county government is regulated, influenced and affected by the classification of the county, and that is a very proper proceeding.

I do not wish to burden you with anything of an extensive nature, but in 1919, I think it was, this general assembly passed a county classification law for the purpose of correcting just such a situation as would be created by the passage of this bill At that time that bill recited, in the preamble, that because of an opinion by one of the justices of the Supreme Court, it was found necessary to nullify it. By virtue of that classification, we were in the fifth class, and having receded into the sixth class, there is no reason why we should not have the benefits of that classification law.

To be more direct on the issue of how we are affected in dollars and cents, in addition to how we are affected as to assessments and population, let it be said here that the tangible, first-instance cost of Clearfield County, if this measure is enacted into law, will be no less than $6,500 per year, and that it is easly understandable that cost will double when the salary ranges are pared down to clerks working in the various county offices. Now, I am not arguing for a reduction of salaries. I am not and will not be a party to the reduction of wages in any respect or in any form. In this economic industrial situation, it is as important to maintain the status quo with respect to salaries and wages as it is to prevent increases being put upon us. But this bill seeks to create for my county a classification to which it is not now entitled. It seeks, if you please, to make of our county, a pauper county now—it seeks to invest that pauper county in princes' raiment and, further, to invest our county officials with kingly appetites and salaries. This bill creates an artificiality in the face of a fact.

By reference to section two of that same classifications act, you will read that the classifications of counties shall be ascertained and fixed according to their population by reference from time to time to the last preceding decennial United States census. By reference to the last United States census, you will find there that our county has a population of but 83,000. By reference to the annual, which lies before me, our population is in the same class as Somerset, in the same class as Lycoming, in the same class with Indiana, and in the same class with several other counties which do not find any difficulty whatever in obtaining able and efficient officers to man their county offices at the salaries prescribed for counties of that class.

By what right, ladies and gentlemen, would this general assembly put our county into a class to which we are not entitled, a class that simply adds to our cost and without our approval? Frankly, I do not believe that when the facts are laid before you, you will be willing to do that.

I now want to read you section 3 of said act, which provides: "The affairs of counties are herein and shall hereafter be legislated for and regulated by general laws, applicable to all counties, or to particular classes, as herein fixed and appointed."

It is my contention, ladies and gentlemen that the passage of this act will be the passage of an amendment that will be found to be in conflict with the plain statements and purposes of the classification act, and, as such, will be subject to a test in court. I would remind you that at this year's election we will elect a majority of our county officers, and if this bill is passed and they are elected under the provisions of this bill, when they come to draw their first salary checks a test will be made of the amendment, and I have it on what I consider to be unimpeachable authority that this bill, Senate Bill No. 13, will not stand when put to the test of legality and you can readily imagine then that we will have held our elections for no good purpose; that there is even a possibility that they will be nullified by court action, and when that step is taken it follows that unusual and tremendous expense and inconveniences will be put upon the people of my county. Our county is divided into two legislative districts. I represent one-half of the county, and in my district is the county seat of that county.

I want to enter my protest here in the passage of this bill. I want to ask all of you to join with me whether you are now affected by this bill or not, for it is within the realm of possibility that you may some time be affected in a similar manner, and I may ask you gentlemen of the fifth class counties not affected immediately, if you want to remain in a higher range class, if you wish to add materially to the cost of your government. This is one of those measures that may not affect you now, but once it is upon the statute books the time may come when it will pinch and then it will be too late.

I ask you, ladies and gentlemen of the House, to vote no on this proposed law. Thank you.

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not want to make any extensive speech upon this bill. The matter received vary careful consideration when it was in the Senate. We have taken the matter up with the Attorney General and gone over it with him. It meets a very serious situation in the two smaller counties which are affected by it. The drop in salary is very large, and it is almost impossible to find men of the proper caliber to accept the salary that will be fixed by the drop into that smaller classification.

I have great regard for the gentleman from Clearfield. I think I know his county pretty well. I do not agree with him that Clearfield County is dead. Clearfield County is suffering from a depression in the coal business, and I feel that when this depression is over and when it gets on its feet again, Clearfield County will be back in the fifth class. It is not a salary raiser; it is not a hard and fast classification of the counties and school districts making for us a great deal of trouble. There is no difference so far as the work of a public officer is concerned. For instance, in one of these counties that drops from below 50—whether it is 51 or 52—it drops into 49 goes from the sixth to the seventh class. There is not a particle of difference what the county commissioners and other officers have to do in the county.

This matter has been very carefully considered by Senator Baldwin, who has given it a great deal of attention, and we have taken it up with the Attorney General and the Legislative Bureau. I, therefore, respectfully ask the members of this House to give this bill their approval.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, my friend, the gentleman from McKean, has referred to my county. I know that he has some knowledge of conditions there, but I happened to have been born in that county. I think I am a competent judge as to whether conditions will right themselves. I would not pretend to say for his county what is good for his county. I do not pretend to say for the other counties affected what is good for these counties. I do contend that if there is anything wrong with the salary range in the eighth class counties, in which one of these counties will go if the law takes its course, that there is a remedy for it I do contend that if there is anything wrong with the salary range in counties of the seventh class, in which one county goes, there is a remedy for it without dragging us along.

I repeat, this bill affects three counties: Bradford, Potter and Clearfield.

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION No. 34

Mr. DUNN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up out of order Resolution No. 34, Printer's No. 409, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 1, 1931.

Whereas The present economic conditions have imposed upon the hospitals within the Commonwealth a greater amount of free treatment of patients made necessary by increased illness and lack of money of those who are in need of medical and surgical treatment and

Whereas This situation imposed upon the Commonwealth a greater degree of responsibility for the care and treatment of such persons which can only be accomplished by making larger appropriations to these institutions therefore be it

Resolved that this House is in favor of substantial increases of financial aid to the hospitals within the Commonwealth for the free treatment of patients and regrets that Constitutional limitations prevent the granting of appropriations to institutions classed as sectarian but which are doing splendid service in the relief afforded to those who suffer and be it further

Resolved That this House favors making such increased appropriations even if they necessitate the abandonment of the promotion of other activities on the part of the Commonwealth for the reason that the relief of the afflicted is the Commonwealth's first duty

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I hold in my hand a letter addressed to me as chairman of the Committee on Legislative Apportionment. It is from Mr. Fertig, the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau, which reads as follows:

April 7, 1931.

Dear Mr. Peelor:

I am transmitting herewith about twenty-five copies of the data relating to the number of Members of the House each county is entitled to. This shows that reapportionment would make the number of members 209 instead of 208. The changes from the present apportionment are as follows:

Gains	Losses
Allegheny 1	Cambria 1
Delaware 1	Dauphin 1
Lehigh 1	Philadelphia 1
Luzerne 1

The notice should immediately go out to each member of the House and Senate of the number to which each county is entitled, and request be made that the apportionment within the county be furnished to your Committee.

In the meantime a skeleton bill should probably be introduced so that the same can be advanced.

I cannot recall the names of the members of the subcommittee, so I am transmitting this material to you, so you can hand it to them.

Sincerely yours,
J. H. FERTIG, Director,
Legislative Reference Bureau."

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to say in conclusion that the Committee on Legislative Apportionment will meet in Room No. 324 tomorrow morning at 9.00 o'clcok and it is of vital importance I presume to every member of this House as it affects your legislative district. I hold in my hand in addition to this the schedule of apportionment so that you can each avail yourselves of that piece of information and find out exactly what it is your duty and mine to do and I ask that this be spread on the Journal.

I am notifying the members of the committee to call and get their copies so they may have an opportunity of studying it between this time and tomorrow morning at 9.00 o'clock.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under the question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WILSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. Speakers and members of the House; there has been a public hearing announced for the House Caucus Room at 2.00 o'clock on House Bills No. 845 and No. 36 affecting the school districts of Allegheny County, Pittsburg and Philadelphia, but owing to a conflict of announcements I now ask for unanimous consent to use the Hall of the House for the purpose of the public hearing before the Committee on Education.

GRANTING USE OF HALL OF HOUSE

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from McKean, Mr. Wilson, asks unanimous consent for the use of the Hall of the House for a public hearing by the Committee on Education. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and consent is granted.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, all the while that this House has been in session I have been an attentive listener to the various members who took the floor in behalf of fair play. I have heard by word of mouth and from the bottom of their hearts I believe with every sincerity of purpose arguments put up on this floor for fair play to their constituents. I have determined and I have tried in my humble manner as a new legislator to give to the members of this House and to the constituency of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the very thing they stood and cried for on this floor, fair play.

This bill was introduced two months ago and during that period has been undergoing extensive amendments so it would bring within its confines reasonableness to everybody who is affected by it. A few days ago I had the privilege of listening to the Honorable Doctor King in an address before the Committee on Education of this House and I was amazed by some of the statements he made. I was amazed to learn that after all the money we had voted to spend in this legislative session that we had done nothing whatever to conserve the interests of the constituency of Pennsylvania who wanted it. And that, my friends, is the purpose of this bill. I do not want to take up much of your time because I believe you are all familiar with this bill. It is not my purpose to quote Doctor King but he brought out very forcibly the fact that in Pennsylvania we have at the present time over one hundred defaulted school districts. These figures are amazing to me. He also specified, and it is a matter of record in print, that in comparing the counties of our State to counties in neighboring states, as an example he took Baltimore County in Maryland, whose cost for the collection of school taxes was $4000 and compared it with a similar county in Pennsylvania, Chester County, in Pennsylvania, where to collect the same amount of taxes it cost the enormous sum of $23,000.

Ladies and gentlemen of this House, I ask if that is a fair proposition. This bill applies only to the third class cities and it would save to the taxpaying public in the neighborhood of two or three million dollars each year. I am asking this Legislature to stop and consider what could be accomplished if that money was put to the proper purposes instead of being pocketed by some individuals. My friends, I have gone the limit in trying to be a gentleman and meet the requirements of every specific community. We have amended and re-amended the bill, considered and reconsidered it, and I only ask you for one thing in voting for or against this bill, to use your judgment. I have heard members of this House say that the people back home are opposed to this bill. Gentlemen, use your own judgment and see if they were opposed. Was it the people, the constituency back home, or was it the tax collector back home that was opposed to this measure? My friends, I can bear that statement out in writing by offering in print letters which I have received and which I now have, that the people back home are not opposed to it. I say to you and to them, it is not the people back home that are opposed to it, it is the tax collector who is opposed to this measure. Furthermore, I desire at this time to correct an erroneous report that trickles through the halls of this House. It has been asserted that the people in my locality were not in favor of this bill, that it was my own selfish interest. I assure you that is not a fact, and I can prove it by a file that I have that shows the origin of this bill.

In conclusion, and not wanting to burden you with these enormous figures it runs into, I want to say for my sake and the sake of the people of Pennsylvania, give this the same consideration that you would give to a private industry. We are wondering now where we are going to get money enough to carry on. Gentlemen, consider them as you would wish to be considered by them.

Mr. GEORGE L. REED. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was before the House on a previous occasion, it provided for a minimum salary of $1,000 and a maximum of $7,500 to be applied to all cities of the third class. I believe that many members of this House from third class cities felt that the bill in that form was objectionable. As the gentleman from Erie has stated, it has been amended many times, and particularly that provision has been amended so that various of the third class cities, having different populations, will have a minimum or a maximum as the city council and board of school directors may determine. I believe that the bill is now in good form, and that it should receive the favorable consideration of this House.

The question comes, as I view it, with respect to the bill as to what shall be the attitude of the House on this proposition? Shall the law continue to be that the treasurer of a third class city shall receive commissions, which, as we know mount into large sums of money or shall he receive a salary which is adequate for the service that he performs? On that proposition I believe that I am voicing a well-nigh unanimous opinion of the people of the city of Harrisburg, that the treasurer of a third class city should be on a salary basis.

As the gentleman from Erie has stated here, this bill has been amended. It is in good form. It meets the needs of the cities of the third class, doing away with the injustice of the taxpayers having to pay large sums of money for this particular office. During the time I have been a member of this House, I have never voted for a bill with a stronger conviction that it is wise legislation than I entertain with respect to this bill, and I hope that this bill will receive the favorable consideration of the House.

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speaker, members of the House of Representatives of the third class cities of the State of Pennsylvania, I want to add my voice in support of this bill. I introduced a measure somewhat similar to it around about the beginning of the session, and it has been lying in committee since that time. I expect to support this bill, and I hope that it passes. The bill means a saving to the taxpayers of the city of Reading of between twelve and fifteen thousand dollars every year, and I understand that in certain other third class cities it will mean a greater saving. I hope the House will pass the bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. FITZGERALD. Mr. Speaker, I ask for a verification of the roll.

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 161, as follows:

An Act to amend section fifty and section two hundred and twenty as amended of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" by permitting and regulating the use of eel baskets

Whereas The eel (Anguilla rostrata) is a catadromous fish going down stream in the fall of the year to spawn in the depths of the ocean and

Whereas It does not feed nor bite at bait while on its downward migration and therefore cannot be caught by any device now legal in Pennsylvania and

Whereas After having left our streams the same eels never return to them thus resulting in a permanent economic loss to our citizens and

Whereas The eels which go with legal protection down our streams and are caught by fishermen in other states and regions below Pennsylvania are shipped back to us at high prices and

Whereas To permit our own fishermen to catch them while on their downward migrations would provide food and occupation for many of our citizens therefore

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section fifty of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled "An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 50 Devices to Coatch Game-fish and Bait-fish No person shall use any device means or method whatsoever except as in this article otherwise provided for taking fish from the waters within this Commonwealth except the following that is to say for

(a) Game fish two rods and two lines and one hand line with not more than three hooks attached to either line

(b) Bait-fish two rods and lines with not more than three hooks attached to each line a dip-net or minnow seine not over four feet square or four feet in diameter a minnow trap with not more than one opening which shall not exceed one inch in diameter The rods hooks and lines must be under the immediate control of the person using the same

(c) Eels in rivers of this Commonwealth in addition to such rods and lines eel baskets from the first day of August to the last day of November in each year Sundays excepted but only from four o'clock in the afternoon to eight o'clock in the morning on such days when a special license therefor in addition to the regular fishing license has been first secured A metal tag issued at the time the special license is secured shall be securely fastened to the eel basket in a conspicuous place

No wing walls of stone or other material shall be constructed for more than three-fourths of the distance across any river The heads of no two wing walls when constructed side by side shall be closer together than a distance of twenty feet

All eel baskets must be kept free of rubbish and all game fish found therein must be immediately returned to the water of the river uninjured

During the hours of each day and on Sunday when the operation and use of eel baskets is not legal under this section a portion of the bottoms of such baskets shall be removed to facilitate the unobstructed passage of fishes

Section 2 That section two hundred and twenty of said act which was amended by section one of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws four hundred fifty-one) entitled "An act to amend sections two hundred twenty as amended two hundred twenty-one two hundred twenty-two two hundred twenty-three two hundred twenty-four two hundred twenty-five as amended and two hundred eighty-five as amended of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred forty-eight) entitled 'An act relating to fish and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth' " is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 220 Resident Fishing License Fees For the purposes of this article every person sixteen years of age and upward upon application to any county treasurer within the Commonwealth or to the Department of Revenue and the presentation of proof that he has been a bona fide resident of this Commonwealth for a period of thirty days next preceding his application and was born in the United States or was fully naturalized under the laws of the United States shall upon the payment to the county treasurer or the Department of Revenue of a license fee of one dollar and fifty cents for the use of the Commonwealth and in the event that the license is issued by a county treasurer a fee of ten cents for the use of the county treasurer be entitled to the license herein referred to as "a resident fishing license"

Upon the making of an application by any person to the Department or county treasurer for a special license to catch eels by the use and operation of an eel basket and the payment of a fee of one dollar for the use of the Commonwealth and ten cents for the use of the county treasurer where application is made to him such person shall be entitled to a special eel basket license and a special metal tag to use and operate an eel basket in the Susquehanna River below the northern boundary of Berwick on the North Branch below the bridge at the Northumberland-Lycoming County line on the West branch in the Juniata River below Mount Union and in the Delaware River below Easton in accordance with the provisions of this act

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SURFACE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, apropos of this bill I want to say a few words especially in regard to the habits of that immortal animal, the American eel. In legislating for any living being, the legislation must be based upon a knowledge of the habits of the creature. The eel is the most remarkable fish that we have, going down stream to spawn in the ocean, rushing pell mell down to the salt waters. All the eels that live in our fresh waters are female eels. Migrating across the Atlantic for five hundred miles beyond the Bahamas and the Antilles, there in the salt water they join the males. Every season the female eel lays five hundred million eggs I have this—this is from the latest information, the latest and the last to be had in the world. I have the advance sheets of the report of the study of Dr. O'Mallory. I have more information in regard to the eel that is to be had in any library in the country. I have the latest reports from the United States Fish Commission. I have studied this subject for many years and I know whereof I speak.

The main point, ladies and gentlemen, is this, that the eels go down stream in the fall of the year out into the ocean and spawn and there they die. If we don't have the chance to catch them on the way down—our eel fishermen merely ask for the privilege of catching these eels while they are on their way down stream to be gone forever. After one and a half years of age the young eel is only about two inches in length and has come to the shore, and those which become females in the course of time pass up the streams. The males remain in the salt water. The females go up stream, up and up to the headwaters of our streams, where the water is a little rill a foot or two across. They live in these little streams feeding mostly on the spawn and eggs of other fishes, such as trout and the fewer eels there are in the headwaters the better for the game fish. Here is a new point that has just been brought out; they go up the streams and there they remain in the headwaters of our streams from eight to twenty years, and the time when they migrate down the stream depends on the food they get. When they rush down the stream they rush pell mell never stop to feed. There is no plan to catch them except this device known to fishermen as an eel-basket. It does not kill game fishes; any game fishes that may be caught in it may escape; the eel bores downward and the game fish works upward. We have the right to trust eel fishermen the same as we trust the trout fisherman. If the trout fisherman catches a bass he is trusted to return it to the waters and if a bass fisherman catches a trout he is trusted to return it to the waters.

The eel basket is the most conspicuous device for catching fish in the world. You can see it half a mile away; those great, wide wing walls terminating in the apex, ten or fifteen feet in length. The name of the operator is on that basket. If he trespasses the law his license will be revoked. Surly the provisions of this bill are right. From every standpoint—economic, humanitarian and civic—I say this bill is right, and I trust it will be given the support of the members of this House. Thank you.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the legislative committee authorized to be appointed pursuant to concurrent resolution, approved April 30, 1929 (Pamphlet Laws, page 1816), to devise ways and means of financing the Commonwealth is hereby continued for a further period of two years and shall make a further report of their recommendations to the General Assembly of 1933. Any vacancy existing on said committee, for any cause, shall be filled by an appointment of a Senator or Member by the President pro tempore or Speaker as the case may be.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO AMOUNT OF MONEY SPENT OVER A THREE YEAR PERIOD FOR OPENING AND IMPROVEMENT OF STREETS AND ROADS

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, January 26, 1931.

Whereas, In the early days of this Commonwealth, real estate was practically the only income producing property and for that reason was selected as the principal object of taxation in order to raise revenue for the opening and maintenance of streets and roads, and

Whereas, In those days, streets and roads were chiefly provided for the convenience of the farmer and landowner and were used exclusively by horse-drawn vehicles and pedestrians, and

Whereas, Today finds these streets and roads a necessity of the many, instead of a convenience for the few, and the swift flight of the motor vehicle has relegated the slow horse-drawn vehicle and the pedestrian to a minor place, and

Whereas, It is proper that the burden of the improvement of these streets and roads should shift as the need they fill has shifted, and that the new users should bear the cost that has so long been borne by those originally served, and

Whereas, The fairest method of apportioning the cost of any benefit is in proportion to the benefits received, and those who use roads and streets benefit most, and

Whereas, By far the greatest number of users of streets and roads are those who operate motor vehicles, and

Whereas, It is the sense of the General Assembly that the cost of the future improvement of the roads and streets within the Commonwealth, other than the State highways, should be borne by those who most use them and that to accomplish this and the full cost thereof should be raised by some means other than by a tax on real property, and

Whereas, Before any such change is made, the General Assembly should have definite information as to the amount of money required to be raised in order to provide sufficient funds to pay for such improvements, and

Whereas, Such information can only be accurately obtained after thorough investigation and study, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Internal Affairs shall, as soon as possible, ascertain the amount of money yearly expended over a three year period by the counties, cities, boroughs and townships within the Commonwealth upon the opening and improvement of streets and roads within their respective jurisdiction and report the same in detail to the General Assembly in Session, or the one first convening after such study has been completed, and be it further

Resolved, That the proper authorities of the various counties, cities, boroughs and townships be requested to furnish the information herein required promptly to the Department as and when requested.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

MEMORIALIZING CONGRESS ON VETERAN HOSPITAL

The Chair cleared his table and laid before the Senate the following resolution:

In the House of Representatives, February 2, 1931.

Whereas, The duty of providing hospital facilities for veterans of the World War requiring the same is recognized by all humanity as a paramount obligation of the nation to whose service those veterans offered themselves; and

Whereas, The United States of America has recognized such obligation by providing hospital facilities for a certain percentage of such veterans; and

Whereas, The hospital facilities so provided within this Commonwealth are totally inadequate to care for the veterans, citizens of this Commonwealth, requiring the same; and

Whereas, There are at present before Congress certain bills the intention of which is to render less acute this deplorable condition, to wit: The Darrow Bill (H. R. 10166), providing for a hospital of eight hundred beds for general medical cases at League Island, Philadelphia; The Wolfenden Bill (H. R. 10527), increasing the available beds in Coatesville Hospital for mental cases from four hundred and eighty-one to twelve hundred and fifty; The Swick Bill (H. R. 14815), providing for two hundred additional beds in the Aspenwall Hospital; The Chase Bill (H. R. 10065), providing for a new general medical hospital for Central Pennsylvania; and The Welsh Bill (H. R. 14449), providing for a diagnostic Centre in Philadelphia; therefore, be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives of the 1931 Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature hereby memoralize the present Congress of the United States to act favorably upon the above referred to bills.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth, to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania, in the Congress of the United States.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 8, 1931.

The House met at 11.30 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (C. J. Goodnough) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

Infinite God, we are always in Thy presence and under Thy loving care. Thou hast not withdrawn Thyself nor hidden Thy face from us, this glad noon hour. As the bright rays of the natural sun warm and cheer all nature this day, so may the smile of Thy love rest upon us, enriching and making glad all our lives.

Thou art always challenging us to prove Thee and see if Thou wilt not open the windows of heaven and pour out such blessings upon us as we shall not be able to receive. We have longed to see the return of temporal prosperity within our borders. Help us to know that blessings temporal are not of first importance, but that Thy promise still stands on record for us if we will "Seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness" then "All these things shall be added unto you."

Help us Lord, not to miss the real joy of living by being over-burdened with the cares of the day. May we remember that men can still totally lose the world by buying it with too much care. We would not be engaged in planting thorns in any man's bosom. But we would gladly pluck some of the thorns out of life's pathway and plant fragrant roses in their stead. Blessed, and forgiven, and guided by Thee, thus would we live each passing day until the great Master shall say to us all "It is enough; come up higher." We ask it in His name. Amen.

RESOLUTION

IN MEMORIAM OF KNUTE ROCKNE.

Mr. HEFFERNAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 8, 1931.

Whereas, The voice of the air brought to us recently the news of that latest grim tragedy of the air, the crashing to earth of that peerless football coach and legendary figure in the world of sports, Knute Rockne; and

Whereas, His world wide reputation as a molder of successful football teams came as the crowning achievement of a life that was begun in this country when he arrived as a boy from Norway at the age of four years; and

Whereas, His success and his fame came only after working his way through school and college and after years of struggle and after years of relentlessly pursuing the way that led to the goal he sought; and

Whereas, The story of the life of this great inspirational leader of American youth, carries a convincing promise of the rich reward of labor and the coming true of dreams, to the lowliest emigrant or the poorest child of the slums; and

Whereas, His life and his success again demonstrates to the world that equality of opportunity which is at once the glory and the challenge of our American civilization; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the passing of Knute Rockne, this Nation has lost a wholesome influence in the training of its youth that is inestimable; that the world of sports has been deprived of its leading figure, and that the national game of football has lost its master mind and will sorely miss its most inspiring and picturesque figure; and be it further

Resolved, That the Nation, and the world of sports and the game of football, and those fortunate youths who came under his instruction and his discipline are all better because he lived.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. GEORGE L. REED. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on June 12th, 1930, a conference was called by the Honorable John S. Fisher, then Governor of Pennsylvania, which conference was also attended by his Excellency, Gifford Pinchot, now Governor of Pennsylvania, and other officials of the state and of the city of Harrisburg, to consider plans for the further erection and development of the capitol group. As an outcome of the conference a commission was appointed by Governor Fisher, consisting of the Honorable Benson E. Taylor, Secretary of Property and Supplies, the Honorable Samuel Eckels, Chief Engineer of the Department of Highways, Dr. J. Horace McFarland, Chairman of the State Arts Commission, Mr. George W. Reily, a member of the Harrisburg Planning Commission and Mr. E. W. Cowden, city engineer of Harrisburg, to consider the matters coming before that conference and to report subsequently to his Excellency, Governor Fisher.

This Commission during December, 1930, presented its report, making numerous recommendations and particularly three major recommendations for the consideration of this session of the Legislature.

The first suggestion was to build the finance building in order to complete the Brunner group, also to acquire sufficient land to the north of the Capitol grounds, and also to arrange for a dignified approach to the eastern end of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Viaduct.

This matter has particularly come to my mind at this time by reason of the fact that within a week of Governor Fisher's retirement from office, at a large reception given to him, attended by members of the Chamber of Commerce of Harrisburg, Governor Fisher expressed his regret that during his administration he had not completed the program, and had the finances so that the Finance Building could be erected. He stated, had he known of the surplus in the treasury at that time, that the plan would have been consummated.

We now find, according to information which I have from various newspapers, that in addition to the surplus of $29,000,000 at the time of Governor Fisher's retirement from office, nearly $5,000,000 more has been found and added to that surplus.

I feel, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, that the report of this able commission should be brought to the attention of the members of this House, and therefore, I ask unanimous consent that the report of this commission may be spread in full upon the Legislative Journal in the proceedings of this day's session for the information of the members of the House.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

REPORT OF PLANNING COMMISSION

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Reed, asks unanimous consent that the report of the Planning Commission be spread upon the Journal. Are there objections? The Chair hears none and the report will be spread upon the Legislative Journal.

To the Honorable John S. Fisher, Governor of Pennsylvaina:

On June 12, 1930, there occurred in your Reception Room a conference called by you to consider the progress and future of the Capitol Group in Harrisburg, with its approaches, and in connection with the great Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Viaduct, then nearing completion. At this conference were present, in addition to Your Excellency, the State and city officials intimately concerned, and Honorable Gifford Pinchot, now Governor-elect.

At the request of this conference, presided over under your direction by Honorable Benson E. Taylor, Secretary of Property and Supplies, you later appointed a committee to consider the subjects discussed, and to make consequent recommendations to you, the committee consisting of those whose names are here appended:

Benson E. Taylor, Secretary of Property and Supplies;
Samuel Eckels, Chief Engineer, Department of Highways;
J. Horace McFarland, Chairman State Art Commission;
George W. Reily, Member Harrisburg Planning Commission;
E. C. Cowden, City Engineer of Harrisburg.

The subjects presented to the conference by Secretary Taylor which therefore constituted the terms of reference to this committee, are summarized as follows:

1. To arrange for a dignified approach to the eastern end of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Viaduct.

2. To arrange for the North Office Building, now in use, and for the Finance Building, soon to be erected, adequate open space to the north.

3. To consider future needs of the State for further office buildings in connection with the preservation of the approaches to the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Viaduct.

4. To confer with the officials of the City of Harrisburg upon the best arrangement of highways relating to Capital Park, and including the necessary widening of Commonwealth Avenue as an approach from the Pennsylvania Railroad Station.

5. To include all these and other related matters in a study by the best obtainable advice of the whole problem of the Capitol Group and its surroundings, to the end that further development may be in harmony with the buildings and improvements contemplated in the Brunner Plan.

The committee thus appointed has held many meetings, and has broadly considered the subjects referred to it. It now respectfully recommends for your consideration and that of the incoming Governor the following suggestions, named in the order of their immediate importance:

1. To provide for the just completed North Office Building and for the Finance Building to be immediately erected as the fourth item in the Brunner Group, "adequate open space to the north," it is urged that the State acquire all the property to the north of the present Capitol Park between and including North Street to Briggs Street, the first parallel street. from Third Street to the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, at the earliest possible time.

If the property thus described is acquired now, many of the problems arising from necessary changes in the grades of the bordering city streets would be eliminated. The committee believes that a considerable portion of the cost of the property to be acquired could be saved from the amount that otherwise would be necessary to pay damages to owners of abutting and adjoining properties affected by the change of grades due to the completion of the new buildings along North Street.

Further, the grades existing are such as to make safe and dignified approaches to these great structures impossible. unless the recommended additional space to the north is acquired.

It is further suggested that if Capitol Park is thus extended to the north, it would be essential to have North Street closed from Third Street to the Pennsylvania Railroad, and to have Briggs Street opened in adequate width from the Pennsylvania Railroad to Front Street.

2. "To arrange for dignified approach to the eastern end of the Soldiers and Sailors Memorial Viaduct" the committee believes to be of the utmost importance.

The approach to this viaduct from the west is now marked by the great pylons, 143 feet in height. No suitable approach can be arranged from the east unless ample space is provided for that purpose. As recently developed by the State Highway Department and the City of Harrisburg, a major highway from the east enters here. The most impressive view of the whole Capitol Group is from the eastern approach

It is further pointed out that the State now owns considerable property north of the viaduct, there being erected upon it important structures used by the Department of Highways.

It is therefore recommended that the State presently acquire the minimum amount of property necessary for the comprehensive development of this eastern approach, including at least the property in the area between Thirteenth and Fourteenth Streets, and extending north and south of State Street approximately 100 feet together with such other property adjoining the Memorial Viaduct as the study suggested in the terms of reference and hereafter recommended may indicate as necessary in the development of the comprehesnive plan.

It will be apparent to Your Excellency that the acquisition of the above properties, together with the immediate erection of the Finance Building, are imperative at this time, and we therefore so recommend.

3. In further consonance with the terms of reference, in which we are instructed "to include all these and other related matters in a study by the best obtainable advice of the whole problem of the Capitol Group and its surroundings," it is urged that Your Excellency recommend to the incoming Governor the institution of such study by professional talent of national or international reputation and experience with the surroundings of great government buildings, looking toward the development of a comprehensive plan including the improvement of the areas proposed to be acquired as well as the existing Capitol Park and its approaches.

Such study, it is believed, would serve to adequately extend the Brunner Plan, upon which during your administration an unparalleled Capital Group has taken definite form.

4. Your committee has studied the problems committed to it not only at meetings, but also upon the ground. There have appeared other related improvements which might well be submitted for the attention of the designer above referred to.

Included in these problems are the desirable widening of Commonwealth Avenue to Market Street, followed as promptly as practicable by its extension past the Pennsylvania Railroad Station to a junction with the Mulberry Street Viaduct.

Preliminary studies have also been made in the State Highway Department for the erection of a bridge across the Susquehanna River, beginning upon the axis of State Street, and shown by those studies to give access on the western bank of the Susquehanna to such improvements in the highway system as would solve certain very difficult traffic problems arising from the strategic location of Harrisburg, the Capital of Pennsylvania, on intersecting national thoroughfares. Such a bridge and its connecting arteries could, among other advantages, provide a much improved connection to the national capital.

It is believed that as the plans for such a bridge were developed it might be found possible to remove a more dignified and less dangerous location the Soldiers Monument now at the intersection of Second and State Streets.

Accompanying this report are estimates and diagrams which may serve to guide any recommendation you may care to make to the incoming legislature and administration.

Upon motion duly put and unanimously adopted on December 23, 1930, this report is herewith respectfully submitted to Your Excellency.

BENSON E. TAYLOR, Chairman,
E. CLARK COWDEN,
SAMUEL ECKELS,
J. HORACE McFARLAND,
GEORGE W. REILY.

SENATE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, February 2, 1931.

Whereas, The duty of providing hospital facilities for veterans of the World War requiring the same is recognized by all humanity as a paramount obligation of the nation to whose service those veterans offered themselves; and

Whereas, The United States of America has recognized such obligation by providing hospital facilities for a certain percentage of such veterans; and

Whereas, The hospital facilities so provided within this Commonwealth are totally inadequate to care for the veterans, citizens of this Commonwealth, requiring the same; and

Whereas, There are at present before Congress certain bills the intention of which is to render less acute this deplorable condition, to wit: The Darrow Bill (H. R. 10166), providing for a hospital of eight hundred beds for general medical cases at League Island, Philadelphia; The Wolfenden Bill (H. R. 10527), increasing the available beds in Coatesville Hospital for mental cases from four hundred and eighty-one to twelve hundred and fifty; The Swick Bill (H. R. 14815), providing for two hundred additional beds in the Aspinwall Hospital; The Chase Bill (H. R. 10065), providing for a new general medical hospital for Central Pennsylvania; and The Welsh Bill (H. R. 14449), providing for a diagnostic Centre in Philadelphia; therefore be it

Resolved (if the House concur), That the Senate and House of Representatives of the 1931 Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature hereby memorialize the present Congress of the United States to act favorably upon the above referred to bills.

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States, and to each Senator and Representative from Pennsylvania, in the Congress of the United States.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 3

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In the House of Representatives, January 26, 1931.

Whereas In the early days of this Commonwealth real estate was practically the only income producing property and for that reason was selected as the principal object of taxation in order to raise revenue for the opening and maintenance of streets and roads and

Whereas In those days streets and roads were chiefly provided for the convenience of the farmer and landowner and were used exclusively by horse-drawn vehicles and pedestrians and

Whereas Today finds these streets and roads a necessity of the many instead of a convenience for the few and the swift flight of the motor vehicle has relegated the slow horse-drawn vehicle and the pedestrian to a minor place and

Whereas It is proper that the burden of the improvement of these streets and roads should shift as the need they fill has shifted and that the new users should bear the cost that has so long been borne by those originally served and

Whereas The fairest method of apportioning the cost of any benefit is in porportion to the benefits received and those who use roads and streets benefit most and

Whereas By far the greatest number of users of streets and roads are those who operate motor vehicles and

Whereas It is the sense of the General Assembly that the cost of the future improvement of the roads and streets within the Commonwealth other than the State highways should be borne by those who most use them and that to accomplish this and the full cost thereof should be raised by some means other than by a tax on real property and

Whereas Before any such change is made the General Assembly should have definite information as to the amount of money required to be raised in order to provide sufficient funds to pay for such improvements and

Whereas Such information can only be accurately obtained after thorough investigation and study therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That the Department of Internal Affairs shall as soon as possible ascertain the amount of money yearly expended over a three year period by the counties cities boroughs and townships within the Commonwealth upon the opening and improvement of streets and roads within their respective jurisdiction and report the same in detail to the General Assembly in Session or the one first convening after such study has been completed and be it further

Resolved That the proper authorities of the various counties cities boroughs and townships be requested to furnish the information herein required promptly to the Department as and when requested

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. STRICKLER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary Special for consideration by that committee because the provisions of this act are covered by House Bill No. 1275, known as the Fair Rate Board Bill, and it should be considered in connection with it.

Mr. E. P. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. W. H. MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been carefully considered by the Associated Boroughs, and very carefully considered by the Committee on Boroughs, the ones who are vitally affected by this measure.

I think it is a very good measure, a measure concerning all the boroughs of our Commonwealth. The other bill takes a chance along with this one, but I would prefer to see this bill go through on its merits.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the very subject matter of this bill is contained in what is known as the fair rate bill and to pass this bill at this time would mean not to give proper consideration to the bill and the fair rate bill. It seems to me that the one committee that has charge of the fair rate bill ought to have the same subject matter before it, so that it can consider both properly.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I merely rise to assure the sponsor of this bill, Mr. Moore, that the very provisions of the bill that he has in mind will be given due and earnest consideration by the Committee on Judiciary Special, where the fair rate bill now lies for consideration. The motion by the gentleman from Lancaster, I am sure, is not made for the purpose of interfering with the bill, but merely that we will not have legislation coming out here on the floor that is overlapping. It is merely sent back for the purpose of being considered along with the fair rate bill.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 695 (Senate Bill No. 18), Printers No. 13, on page 7 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Haws.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 695 (Senate Bill No. 18), entitled:

An Act to amend section three hundred and three of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended authorizing any board of school directors of any district to elect as treasurer of the district any corporation duly qualified and legally authorized to transact a fiduciary business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as treasurer of any district.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to make a few remarks entirely upon the merits of this bill, as I view it.

I merely wish to call the attention of the House to the fact that this bill provides that a school district may appoint a corporation duly qualified and legally authorized to transact a fiduciary business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This is done by amendment. At the present time, under a ruling of the Attorney General's Office, this can not be done under the terms of the school code.

Under the terms of this amendment, if it is passed by the House, it will simply mean this, that the entire distinction and character as drawn in the school code in reference to the treasurers will be wiped out, in so far as this one act is concerned, although various sections are left in there, which treat the treasurer as an individual person and not as a corporation. I refer for example, to that section of the code which calls for the criminal prosecution of a treasurer if he is found guilty of embezzlement of the school district's funds.

I further would like to call attention to the fact that it merely states that "said treasurer may be any corporation duly qualified and legally authorized to transact a fiduciary business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." There is a question in my mind and a grave question, whether or not that merely applies to a certain form of corporation, namely, a trust company and whether it would apply to another form of banking corporation, which merely has a trust department as an incidental part, and which is not classed as a fiduciary but as a trust company under the provisions of the state banking department. I really believe that if this act should be passed by the House that it would be deemed unconstitutional due to that fact if for no other reason.

I believe, likewise, that the intention of the school code always has been naturally to protect the public moneys. They have made every safe-guard covering the treasury as it now is, as an individual, they require furnishing of a bond, they require certain monthly statements, and they require the countersigning of the checks by the president and the secretary as well as by the treasurer. They require every safeguard that can be made covering the protection of the funds of a school district. There is absolutely no need that a bank should be placed in the same situation. There will be no saving or economy, as a result of the passage of this bill, for I can assure you gentlemen that if the banks once get to the stage where they are treasurers of all the different school district funds, they will most certainly charge the commission allowed by the code, as well as under the treasurer of any school district. Because of that fact, I do not believe the bill is in anywise deserving on its merits, and I ask you, therefore, to vote no.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill was in the Committee on Education for a considerable period of time. I was one of those in the committee who urged that it be held up for study, and after the bill had been considered, we determined that it only amended the act, as it now exists, to a very slight degree.

The act, as it now stands, is that the treasurer may be any corporation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—any corporation of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. That meant that banks organized under the laws of the State of Pennsylvania or trust companies organized under the laws of the state of Pennsylvania could be the treasurer, and this is merely an acceptance of the provision, one slight step further.

We all know that national banking institutions have in recent years been granted the power, by accepting certain acts, to exercise fiduciary powers, and, therefore, the act as it stood, was a discrimination against the national banking institutions, did the school board in that locality desire to make the national bank the treasurer of that community. There is nothing in this bill that makes it compulsory on the part of the school board to name a bank, but we all can conceive that there are circumstances that may apply to communities where the people think that for safety or the better handling of the funds of the school district, it is better to make some banking institution the treasurer of the district.

I cannot see anything in the argument of my friend from Luzerene County that this interferes with some other provisions of the code. For instance in reference to the embezzlement of the funds, the bank naturally cannot embezzle the funds, and if an employe of the bank embezzles the funds of the bank, the bank is protected by a bond covering such an individual. Any school district that so desires can require certain bonds and certain assurances and insurance from the treasurer, in order that it may be protected, under the provisions.

Now, gentlemen of the House, it seems to me that under these conditions it would be ultimately unfair to defeat an amendment of this kind, and this one in particular, which amends the act, and the fear of the gentleman from Luzerne in reference to the constitutionality of this act and the things it is going to infringe, I think are more bugaboos, raised not for the purpose stated, but merely for another purpose in defeating this act. I ask the members to vote aye.

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to make a few remarks merely in answer to the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Turner.

I might state, first of all, that insofar as a bank has not in the past ever been able to act legally as the treasurer of a school district, is because there has been a ruling made by the Attorney General's Office of this Commonwealth, less than one year ago, which stated that the purport of the school code was that a bank could not do so, and that no corporation was intended to be a treasurer of any school district, and that an individual should be the treasurer of that district. That is based entirely on the statement that I made before in reference to the constitutionality of the act so far.

I likewise wish to state this, that they say that this is an optional feature. In my short tenure as a member of the House, I have learned this much, that acts that were passed in 1929 as optional measures suddenly bob up again in the 1931 session of the legislature, with merely a slight amendment being added, changing "may" to "shall", and it seems to me that is the invariable practice: Once they get the act on the statute books as a discretionary measure, the next term it becomes a mandatory measure, and once it is mandatory you are removing something from each and every one of the school districts, from each and every one of the school boards the rights they have enjoyed under the school code of 1921 and the amendments thereto.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mason.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Mason permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, how long have you known that this bill was in the House?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I believe about a month.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, did you ever bring to the attention of the Education Committee the fact that there was a ruling by the Attorney General to the effect that this act was unconstitutional?

Mr. MASON. Mr. Speaker, I did not, but I believe that a part of the duty of the Committee on Education is naturally to check up on every one of the bills that come before it.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, it is the custom of the Committee on Education, in all matters pertaining to such measures, to submit them to the Department, and the Department writes each week a little brief of the bills as they come in on education, which is distributed.

I have never heard this question of constitutionality raised heretofore. This measure has passed through the Senate. It was drawn in the Legislative Bureau here, and I think we all know the ability of the Chief of the Legislative Reference Bureau as well as his familiarity with the constitutional questions that are involved and the rulings that have been made.

Certainly, for the length of time that has transpired, and with no question having been raised in reference to this bill heretofore, it seems to me at this late date very peculiar that we now should be confronted with an argument that we should not pass this bill on such a ground.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 453, Printer's No. 271, on page 6 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. D. Glenn Moore,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 453, entitled:

A Joint Resolution proposing an amendment to article fourteen, section two of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Washington.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SOWERS. Will the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Moore, explain to the House the nature and character of this bill?

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is one of a series of proposed constitutional amendments which are tied in with the voting machine law and some election legislation that has been passed in prior sessions. This bill amends Article 14, Section 2, of the Constitution. The present law reads thus: "County officials shall be elected at the municipal elections and shall hold their office for the term of four years beginning on the first Monday of January next after election, or until their successors shall be duly qualified. All vacancies not otherwise provided for shall be filled in such manner as provided by law."

This amendment makes only a slight change in that Article 14, Section 2 of the Constiution. Briefly, it simply substitutes these words in the opening sentence: "County officers shall be elected or appointed as may be provided by law." The rest of the section is verbatim from the present Constitution. I might say that the purpose of this amendment is to possibly pave the way later for what is sometimes called the short ballot. Many of us realize a number of county officials of minor importance are nominated and elected and simply encumber the ballot. The purpose of this is to provide for their appointment if the necessary legislation is enacted and the amendment be adopted. It does not disturb any county official. The term is four years just as the present constitutional section provides. It is simply, as I said before, to shorten the ballot if the people of Pennsylvania in their wisdom decide to do it later on.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is a very short bill but a very important one. I have heard the gentleman from Washington on numerous occasions talk in favor of home rule. I have heard him argue repeatedly in sessions of this Legislature in favor of local rule, and I have heard him say repeatedly that he would like to have applied to the City of Philadelphia local rule, and that the Legislature should have nothing to do with legislation there but that it ought all to be in the hands of council. Today I find him reversing himself and now arguing to do away with home rule.

Members of the House, would not the passage of this amendment destroy the election of your county justices of the peace? Do you want your county commissioners to appoint them? Do you want your register of wills to be appointed and your recorder of deeds to be appointed? Do you want to create in the hands of someone terrific power and a big machine? Do you want to have that machine in your county so powerful that it can dictate through its officeholders who shall be elected and who shall not be elected? I submit to you members of the House that we ought to stop the centralization of government in Pennsylvania and we should begin here.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Sowers, has set up a man of straw. He has conjured up from his very fertile imagination a number of evils and dangers which are not even suggested by this short bill. I reiterate what he said regarding home rule. I believe in it. I believe also that we would be better off if we had a short ballot, and if a lot of minor county officials were appointed instead of elected, and we have had for a long time a lot of these minor officials who are simply lost in the shuffle. This bill does not destroy the tenure of office of any county official at the present time. In order to be effective it must pass another session of the Legislature, and then if there is no enabling legislation passed the thing will simply be a dead letter. It is just simply a move to cut down expenses and to help things out generally. There is nothing to be scared at in this bill at all despite the fact that the gentleman from Philadelphia seems to be scared.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I desire at this time to call up House Bill No. 689, Printer's No. 441, from the final passage postponed calendar.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Turner.

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 689, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of Appropriations Act Number forty-four A approved May fourth one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Appropriation Acts Page thirty-two) entitled "An act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies to construct erect and dedicate in the city of Chester a monument to the memory of John Morton and making an appropriation" by reducing the amount of money certain citizens are required to raise toward the cost of such monument and reappropriating to the Department of Property and Supplies the unused appropriation made by said act

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. WEIDEMANN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer an amendment at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendment will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendment as follows:

Amend page 2, line 27 by striking out after the word "Section" and before the word "That" the figure: "[3]" and inserting in lieu thereof the figure: "2".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendment at this time? Is there objection? The Chair hears none and the amendment will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say in this connection that I have had to amend this bill two or three times mainly through printers' errors. It seems to me we are having too many printers' errors in the bills. They are not being read carefully enough in the printing shop. Even after you insert your amendment they come back missing in other parts

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted i the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmativ ed, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1064, entitled:

An Act relating to the maintenance of feeble-minded persons and epileptics in state-owned institutions; fixing liability for their support; and providing for the collection of the moneys due the Commonwealth therefor.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I just rise to call your attention to this bill because to me it does not appear to be a good one. It provides that if there is an epileptic or a feeble-minded member in a family who is sent to an institution and the parents have property the bill for its care can be collected regardless of how much it may be. That means that in many instances people who are unfortunate enough to have feeble-minded children are apt to lose their property as a result. In my opinion that is not fair. I think that where there is a feeble minded person that we as citizens of the Commonwealth are in duty bound to bear our share of that unfortunate condition. Therefore, I would ask the members to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I introduced this bill at the request of the Department of Justice. At the present time the Commonwealth has the right to collect from the family for charges where people are sent to institutions. This bill merely extends that provision to give the Commonwealth that right where a commitment has been made of a feeble-minded or an epileptic person to an institution.

Mr. DUNN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Mathay, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MATHAY. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DUNN. Is it not a fact that there is a law to-day whereby the state can collect monies from any family that is unfortunate enough to have an unfortunate in that family and that unfortunate is put in an institution, that that institution may collect the money from the family if one of the family is unfortunate enough to be an imbecile or an idiot?

Mr. MATHAY. Yes.

Mr. DUNN. Why is it necessary to have this bill?

Mr. MATHAY. This bill merely extends the law to feeble-minded epileptics.

Mr. DUNN. Is there any difference between an epileptic and any other feeble-minded person?

Mr. MATHAY. It appears that it is not now in the law and the Department of Justice asks to have that put in.

Mr. DUNN. The law states that if any person is put in an institution that the state may collect the money for their keep from the family if they have anything to collect from. I am of the opinion that this is only duplicating the present law.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Mathay, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. MATHAY. Certainly, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I would ask the gentleman from Philadelphia if this bill does not enable the Commonwealth to destroy an estate by entireties in the case of bills being contracted by children who are epileptics or feeble minded.

Mr. MATHAY. The law now is that they can collect from an estate by entireties. This merely extends the law to feeble-minded persons and to epileptics.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Do you mean to say there is a law on the statute books by which an estate by entireties may be taken for bills contracted by children?

Mr. MATHAY. I am so informed by the Department.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I am sorry to be compelled to arise in my seat to attack a bill which I have just been informed comes to this House sponsored by the Department of Justice. I am sorry to be compelled to state that we have arrived at the point in Pennsylvania when we as citizens and taxpayers are no longer willing to assume the responsibility of caring for those whom Divine Providence in its wisdom has passed upon us to take care of, those who are epileptic or those who are feeble-minded, or those who are both epileptic and feeble-minded.

The great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, with all its natural resources; we who pride ourselves as being Pennsylvanians, to come in here and confess that we no longer are willing to assume the duty which from biblical days to the present time is cast upon us as citizens of Pennsylvania, to take care of those who are unable to take care of themselves. A man and woman joined in lawful wedlock may have five or six children; through hard labor and by hard striving and through saving they are able to get a roof over their heads, and then along perhaps comes a seventh child and through some freak of nature, through some working of the laws of nature that we are unable to understand or to analyze, the mind of that child is unable to function. It is a toy; as a piece of wood; something that must be cared for; something that must be taught perhaps how to eat; something perhaps that has to be taught to care for the very wants of nature; and we are going to do what? To enable the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to take that home which the father and mother and perhaps the other brothers and sisters worked and strived for so hard. That home which the father placed in his name and his wife's name, and said "Mary," or "Martha," or "Anna, this is our home," "this is our nest." This is something, as I have said, over which they had no control whatsoever. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania has provided institutions and now the Department of Justice wants enabling legislation to permit the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to take the roof from over their head.

You and I don't know how much these bills amount to. We have had no reasons—nothing has been presented to us to show the amount of these bills. That epileptic may live fifty or sixty or even seventy years and that property would be wiped out. I think it is one of the worst pieces of legislation that has ever been presented on the floor of this House. I don't say this in a spirit of offence to my friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Mathay, who stated that he introduced this bill at the request of the Department of Justice, but I do say, let us be men and women, let us do our duty and as citizens of Pennsylvania don't let us open up the door so as to permit where people are holding title to properties by entireties to permit that property to be taken away from them by a bill of this kind.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. MATHAY. Mr. Speaker, there being some opposition to this bill I move that it be placed upon the postponed calender.

Mr. E. P. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

NAYS—0

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, that the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1254, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen (P. L. 579), entitled "An act to fix the salary and mileage of the members of the General Assembly, and to provide for the furnishing of such postage, stationery, and supplies, as may be necessary for the conduct of their offices, and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith," as amended.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I rise to oppose this bill because I think it is an improper bill and an improper time for us to vote an increase to ourselves. We all know that the depression is felt all over the State and I think it will be a bad reflection upon this body if we pass this bill.

Mr. GREEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel that the members of the Senate and of the House come up here to Harrisburg, a great many of them, at a great sacrifice and I think it is only right and just that they should get the proper amount of compensation. I think the amount we get for a special session $500.00 is too low for the quality and dignity of the office we occupy.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want in this public way to enter my protest. If I am making too much of a sacrifice in coming to this House I will withdraw from the Legislature and let some one else assume the responsibility. I think this bill should be opposed. I cannot see why it would not be sufficient for all the services we render.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not afraid to voice my approval of this bill. I know the time when we came here for $1,000.00 for the regular session; I know the time when it was raised to $1,500.00 and I know the time when I spoke to a gentleman from the country and I asked him why he hadn't voted for the bill raising the salary of the members of the Legislature and he said, "I could not do that; Lord God! It would stir up too much opposition back home against me; there would be too many fellows struggling for the job." I am afraid that a sentiment of that kind may be found opposing this bill. Why, members of the House, bricklayers work less hours than we do and get more money, and if members of the Legislature working as long as we do and the hours we put in are not worth $1,500.00 at a special session then our good Governor should never call a special session.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House I think the amount provided for in this bill is not sufficient. It should be high enough to make a special session prohibitive so it would not be necessary to call a special session. Then we will get down to business and complete all the legislative work necessary in the regular session.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend title, lines 7 and 8, by striking out the following: "a bondsman causes the apprehension of a defendant and surrenders him" and insert in lieu thereof "the defendant is subsequently apprehended and returned"

Amend title, last line, by inserting after the word "court" the following: "and providing for the repayment of moneys collected in such cases"

Amend section 1, page 2, line 8 by inserting after the word "court" the following: "and the same has been paid into the county treasury"

Amend section 1, page 2, lines 10 and 11, by striking out the following: "through the efforts of a bondsman and surrendered" and insert in lieu thereof "and returned"

Amend section 1, page 2, line 12 by inserting after the word "may" the following: "(a)"

Amend section 1, page 2, line 13 by inserting after the word "attorney" the following: "and (b), shall upon order of court in any case"

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. STEWART. Ladies and gentlemen of the General Assembly: I would not intrude upon the time of the House at this late hour, were it not for the fact that this is one of the most important pieces of legislation that is before the Genereal Assembly today. My purpose in addressing the House is to bring to the attention of the General Assembly, both Senate and House, certain facts of which I believe all should have knowledge.

Strange to say, in view of my history and reputation in this House, I do not arise to object to this bill. I favor it, as a measure having in it the milk of human kindness so sadly lacking in the bill which it amends. I shall vote for it. But there are certain facts in connection with this bill that I believe should be called to your attention. I shall take no more than three minutes of your time. I believe that these facts should be placed in the record, for the consideration of the General Assembly in whatever final disposition is made of this muddled delinquent seated tax sale situation.

This bill would amend a law signed May 9, 1929, a bill generally referred to as the "delinquent seated tax sale bill," or in less affectionate terms, which act has been held unconstitutional by a county judge, the Honorable A. R. Chase, of the Clearfield County Court.

It is pertinent to the solution of a question involved that you have a brief history of this case.

In response to a petition filed only two or three days prior to the day set for the holding of the sale, August 4, 1930, to be exact, the county treasurer having advertised the sales according to the law, Judge Chase issued an order restraining the county treasurer from holding the sale on said date and a rule on the county treasurer to show cause why the order should not be made absolute and permanent, the petition alleging the tax act to be unconstitutional.

The county treasurer made no defense, he taking the position that he was but an agent acting in a representative capacity and subordinate to the order of the court; whereupon the court issued an order which said, in effect, "it appearing that this act is in conflict with Article 3, Section 3, of the Constitution of Pennsylvania," and further restrained the county treasurer from holding a sale, adding, "the manner in which said act offends to be set forth at November term of court."

That order or opinion has never been filed, and we on whom the duty of legislation is placed have no means of knowing in what respect or manner we must alter, change or amend the parent act to bring it within constitutional requirements. Neither have we any means of knowing how such legal difficulties can be corrected in the drawing of any new act to cover the situation, which is indeed acute, as because of litigation no tax sale has been held in my county for three years; and I am informed that a similar situation exists in other counties.

Should we pass this bill, we will be ignoring the rule of the county judge on the law which this bill amends, though perhaps we are justified in view of the fact the said county judge has up to this time failed to set forth the manner in which the parent law offends. I do not presume to know; neither do I venture an opinion. But I think it is only proper that this situation be made a matter of record, in order that when the Senate and House conferees come together on the bill, they shall have knowledge of the situation, in at least one of the courts of the state, with regard to the constitutionality of the act which this bill seeks to amend.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House: There have been a number of bills introduced in this session of the Legislature seeking to amend that act of 1929. The opinion of Judge Fleming, which my friend has cited, served a very good purpose at the time. Undoubtedly the Legislature made a very serious mistake in 1929 in the passage of that act, and it would have created untold hardship in a great many counties this year if the sales had been held under that act. I do not think, however, that the opinion of Judge Fleming (and I think my opinion is backed up by other lawyers that have studied it) would have held water in an appeal from that decision.

It is my understanding that Mr. Wheeler has made some study on this question. It is a big question. It involves a number of very important issues. It involves not only the question of the time of the sale; it involves the question of penalties; it involves the time which the tax collectors shall have within which to make their returns. Mr. Wheeler has made some study, as I said, upon this matter, and it was my understanding that the result of his studies had been turned over to Mr. Peters. Am I correct in that Mr. Wheeler?

Mr. WHEELER. Yes, sir. Have you concluded, sir?

Mr. TURNER. I have not. I was merely going to say that in view of the situation (I had not caught this bill on the calendar) I was going to ask the sponsor of this bill whether he would not recommit this bill to committee, so that all of these bills might be considered together. There are so many questions involved in this, and it is such a technical question, that I think it should be studied very carefully by some group of this House.

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House: I am not a lawyer, much less a constitutional lawyer; and I am not in a position to go into the constitutionality of this act. My only object in proposing this measure is to give a relief in a very serious, and which may become a very critical, situation. This bill had been out for second reading at the request of members of the House. I had referred it back for third reading for comparison with similar bills introduced. Apparently similar bills never reached the same committee. I am only interested in relieving a situation which is very critical over the State, and which, if it should be placed in effect on the first of May, which is following very closely, it might retard the return of prosperity and bring untold misery to the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I only ask that some measure of this character be enacted, and be enacted speedily.

Since it has been referred back to a committee on a previous occasion, I would prefer not to refer it back; but I am willing to make a motion that it be placed on the postponed calendar.

BILL POSTPONED

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. SCHROCK. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. FLYNN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, April 13, 1931, at 9.00 o'clock P. M.

Mr. D. GLENN MOORE. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to, and at 6.25 o'clock P. M., the House adjourned until Monday evening, April 13, 1931, at 9.00 o'clock.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

In gratitude, our Father, we reverently bow before Thee ere we begin the work of this hour. With tender compassion Thou hast watched over our lives, while we have been absent one from another. We bless Thee for goodness and mercy that watches over us in all our journeys and brings us safely on our way.

Under the watchful guidance of the unseen hand our Commonwealth has moved steadily on toward the zenith of her fame. In the days of our beginning we were but a handful and very weak. One by one Thou hast raised up men of vision; men of courage; men who loved truth and who were not afraid even to die, for the right. We bless Thee for the commanding position our people hold in the sisterhood of States. We do not feel that we have reached perfection. There are multitudes who cry for long denied opportunities to live at their best. There are great wrongs that in Thy name ought to be righted. Social injustice and moral degradation still bring the blush of shame. We bless Thee that wrongs can be righted; that injustice can be made to cease; and that the lamp of experience can aid us in avoiding the pitfalls of life's pathway.

Let Thy eternal spirit of love direct us this evening hour. Give strength and guidance to our presiding officer; to the members and employees of this Assembly; and to all in authority over us. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY TO HONORABLE THOMAS B. WILSON.

Mr. TALBOT offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 13, 1931.

Whereas, The House has learned with the profund sorrow of the sudden, tragic and unexpected death of Samuel J. Wilson of Swissvale, Pennsylvania, a brother of the Hon. Thomas B. Wilson, a member of this House, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House, well knowing the loss that is his, extends to the Hon. Thomas B. Wilson, its deepest sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to our bereaved member.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

HOUSE BILL NO. 1351 MADE SPECIAL ORDER

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the action of this House on Wednesday, April eighth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, by which House Bill No. 1351, Printer's No.

405, entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways, authorizing their construction, maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act, "was made a special order of business for Monday, April twentieth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, at ten o'clock, post meridian, be rescinded, and that said House Bill No. 1351, Printer's No. 405, be made a special order of business for Tuesday, April fourteenth, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one, at 12:00 o'clock noon.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I made a motion to make this bill a Special Order of business for Monday, April 20, at 10 P. M., because I felt that we did not have sufficient information to pass upon the bill as it came upon the calendar last week.

You all know we passed a resolution asking the Department of Highways for certain information. The reply which we received from the Department of Highways did not give us any information, except in such detail as we could easily have known of our own knowledge without asking for the information from the Department of Highways. The important and essential information was not given, although the department waited two weeks in order to send us the reply. However, the chairman of our Roads Committee, felt that some advantage had been taken of him unfairly, or that I had taken unfair advantage in placing this as a Special Order of business for Monday of next week, and rather than have such feeling on the part of a colleague, with whom I have served here so many years, I felt that I would rather rescind that motion and have it a special order of business for tomorrow. The Chairman of the Highway Committee promised to furnish me with information, and I have served notice on him that he has not furnished it, but I think I have gathered sufficient information in the meantime. Therefore, I offered this motion.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 989 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. STEEDLE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 13, 1931.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 989, entitled "An act making an appropriation to the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to be used by said commission in the payment of the cost of the construction reconstruction relocation alteration or abolition of any crossing of the tracks of railroad corporations or street railways corporations at above or below grade of public highways exclusive of State highways designated as primary routes and regulating the expenditure of the amount hereby appropriated," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION

INCREASE OF APPROPRIATIONS TO EASTERN AND WESTERN PENITENTIARIES

Mr. DUNN offered the following resolution which was twice read and laid over under the rules.

In the House of Representatives, April 13, 1931.

Whereas, The Eastern and Western Penitentiaries of the Commonwealth are overcrowded and that lack of sufficient appropriations has made it impossible to afford the relief to present conditions that is demanded by every natural law of humanity, and

Whereas, This situation imposes upon the Commonwealth a greater degree of responsibility for the care and treatment of inmates of these institutions which can only be accomplished by making larger appropriations for the immediate building of new penal institutions, therefore be it

Resolved, That this House is in favor of substantial increases in the appropriation of funds to be used for the purpose of building such penal institutions within the Commonwealth for the humane treatment and proper care and housing of those sentenced to imprisonment therein, and be it further

Resolved, That this House favors making such increased appropriations even if they necessitate the abandonment of the promotion of other activities on the part of the Commonwealth, for the reason that the relief of these charges of the Commonwealth is more important obligation.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 36

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time Concurrent Resolution No. 36, Printer's No. 479.

The clerk read the resolution as follows:

In the Senate, April 7, 1931.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the legislative committee authorized to be appointed pursuant to concurrent resolution approved April thirty one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws page one thousand eight hundred sixteen) to devise ways and means of financing the Commonwealth is hereby continued for further period of two years and shall make a further report of their recommendations to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three Any vacancy existing on said committee for any cause shall be filled by an appointment of a Senator or Member by the President pro tempore or Speaker as the case may be

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was adopted.

Ordered, That the clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heffernan, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, I will ask the House to please be in order, because I have a very important message to deliver to you.

I received a telegram today, which states:

"Please see the Speaker of the House and insist upon the House passing the Schwartz milk bill, as I am very much interested in milk.

(Signed) DAVID NELSON DENMAN, III.

Latrobe, Pa."

Being a practicing dentist, I suppose that it is necessary to get milk by using a good pull.

I now desire to announce to you—as you no doubt have already heard—that on March 26th, a ten and one-half poun baby arrived at the Denman home at Latrobe, and, of course, coming down from heaven he was welcomed with open arms.

The men and the women of the House, who make up its membership, have taken a direct and personal interest in this baby boy, because he is the first honorary member of the House of Representatives of this Commonwealth.

I had the pleasure of calling upon the members a few days ago in reference to this sweet child, and, as a result, I am here, now, tonight, to make my report, not only to you, but also to the beloved mother, Mrs. Denman.

The first thing that was done, after my visit to the members of the House, was to appoint a committee of the ladies, consisting of Mrs. Kirkbride, Mrs. Pitts and Mrs. Pennock, and that committee thought it wise that they first select a beautiful, solid silver loving cup for the baby, and it is engraved: "From the Members of the House of Representatives, to David Nelson Denman, III." This cup will be handed to the good mother, and she, in turn will place it to the lips of her beloved child.

After the selection of this beautiful cup—as you see here—there was a balance in the treasury, and Mrs. Kirkbride and the members of her committee decided that we should take the balance and open a bank account for the boy in the Latrobe Trust Company, in the name of Mary Thompson Denman, in trust for David Nelson Denman, III. The amount is a splendid one.

I have a letter here from the Latrobe Trust Company which reads as follows:

"Latrobe Trust Company, Latrobe, Pa., April 10, 1931.

Mrs. Mabelle M. Kirkbride,
House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

Dear Mrs. Kirkbride:

We have your letter of yesterday enclosing your check for $26.00 and instructing us to deposit the amount represented by the check in a savings account to the credit of Mary Thompson Denman in trust for David Nelson Denman, III.

We are gratified that our Company has been chosen as the depository for the account of the new Member of the House. All in the First Legislative District of Westmoreland County are proud of the Hon. Mary Thompson Denman. Here in Latrobe all of us are interested in her political career, and the coming of the heir, we feel certain, will add to her popularity and attractiveness.

Pass book No. 12587 herewith is enclosed, the proper entry of the first deposit having been made. We assure you and all of your fellow Members of the House who were parties to the opening of the account that it will be safeguarded zealously.

Very cordially,
(Signed) W. H. FLICKINGER,
Treasurer."

I now have the extreme and delightful pleasure of presenting this cup to the mother of this delightful boy, who by the way, has asked me in a telegram to get him leave of absence for the next week, as he will not be here.

I take pleasure in presenting this cup to you, Mrs. Denman.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mrs. DENMAN. I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The lady will state her question of personal privilege.

Mrs. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker, I believe that every member of this House and all of the visitors, realize that I am saying absolutely what I feel when I say that I cannot find words adequate to tell you how much I appreciate, not only what you have done tonight, but the many expressions of your fellowship and your good sportsmanship during the past two weeks.

I tried to think of what to say, and came tonight knowing that I was going to try to thank you for those favors, but absolutely unprepared for this experience tonight.

I will also say, that as a member of the Committee on Law and Order, when the Schwartz milk bill was reported out of Committee, certainly there was no ulterior motive in the reporting of that bill.

I want also to thank you for the lovely flowers that you sent me, which will always be a beautiful and fragrant memory, and that the resolution you so generously passed has been framed and will become a prized document. This beautiful cup, you know, will become a family heirloom, and that the splendid fellowship, comradeship and good sportsmanship of the members of the House will always be one of the finest memories that I can carry throughout my life.

I assure you the trustee will take good care of the account. Thank you.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heffernan, and of the lady from Westmoreland, Mrs. Denman, under their questions of personal privilege, will be spread upon the Journal.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heffernan.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Heffernan, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, how are you going to get out of it?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I am very much concerned, Mr. Speaker, and therefore, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, whether in presenting this cup it is a permanent trophy, or whether you have to win it three times to keep it?

Mr. HEFFERNAN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, upon advice of counsel, I refuse to answer.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOOPES. Mr. Speakers and members of the House, I realize that it is very unpopular to oppose bills such as this, yet it seems to me that the limit must be reached some time. I understand that the printing bills for the State exceed $1,000,000 a year. We are printing the proceedings of various veterans organizations, and there can be some argument put up in favor of them on the basis that they have performed service for the country and that we are only returning a small part of it to them in printing the proceedings of their conventions. But when it comes to printing the proceedings of the organizations of the sons and the grandsons and the granddaughters of soldiers, it seems to me we are going a little too far. I don't see why they are any more entitled to have the proceedings of their conventions printed at a large expenditure of State money than many other civic and patriotic associations, and I therefore protest against the addition to the public expense of printing as provided for in this bill or bills like this. I shall vote "no."

Mrs. KIRKBRIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, inasmuch as I am a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, I believe personally I can appreciate more fully than most of the members here the value of the work being done by members of this organization.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mrs. KIRKBRIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mrs. KIRKBRIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Military Affairs for the purpose of further study.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 771.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 10, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 771, Printer's No. 188, entitled, "An Act fixing the salary of the coroner in counties of the first class."

This bill would increase the salary of the coroner of Philadelphia County from eight thousand dollars ($8,000) per annum to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) per annum.

I am opposed to the fixing of salaries in any city or county by act of the Legislature. The local authorities who have the responsibility for fixing the tax rate and raising revenue should also have the right to determine what salaries shall be paid to local officers. Accordingly, the salaries of county officers as well as of city officers serving the County and City of Philadelphia should be fixed by city council, and not by the General Assembly. I shall not approve any measures inconsistent with the principle I have stated.

In addition, I am informed that eight thousand dollars ($8,000) per annum amply compensates the coroner of Philadelphia for the services he performs.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. GREELY. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 905.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 11, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 905, Printer's No. 189, entitled: "An Act to amend article four of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled: 'An act relating to counties of the second third fourth fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto' by the addition at the end thereof a new subheading permitting the temporary use in counties of the second class of certain funds for purposes other than those for which such funds were acquired providing the method for such transfer and validating such transfer heretofore made."

This bill proposes an amendment to the County Code enacted in 1929.

As stated in my message returning, without my approval, House Bill No. 518, I am opposed to the passage of many separate bills amending an important code, thus to a large degree destroying the value of the code. It is certainly highly desirable that all changes in a code enacted as recently as the County Code be included in one bill.

There is now pending a bill which proposes to amend the County Code in many respects. The subject matter of the present bill can readily be included therein.

In addition, while it has been represented to me that there is urgent need for the immediate passage of the present bill, it is a fact that because of the failure of the bill to fix an earlier effective date, it would not, if approved in its present form, take effect until September 1, 1931, under the terms of the Act of May 17, 1929, P. L. 1808. Thus approval of this bill would defeat any necessity for its immediate operation.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. STEEDLE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communciation, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. GANGLOFF. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 518.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 11, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 518, Printer's No. 101, entitled "An Act to amend section one thousand three hundred and one of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws five hundred nineteen) entitled 'An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs' by giving boroughs discretion to levy a tax on occupations."

This bill would amend Section 1301 of the Borough Code which now provides that "All property, offices, professions, and persons made taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth for county rates and levies, shall be taxable after the same manner for general borough purposes."

The amendment proposes to strike out the words "Offices, professions, and persons" and to substitute this sentence, "All offices, posts of profits, trades and occupations made taxable by the laws of this Commonwealth for county rates and levies, may, in the discretion of the council, be taxable after the same manner for general borough purposes."

Under the existing law, it is clear that a borough council may, in its discretion, tax offices, professions and persons if they are taxable for county purposes. The amendment would only cause confusion. It would provide expressly that council shall have a discretionary right to tax offices, posts of profit, trades, and occupations, and permit the present language to remain respecting the taxation of property. This would indicate that property, taxable for county purposes, must be taxed for general borough purposes. I do not believe that the members of the Legislature intended such a change in the law

As the law now stands, its meaning is clear. Confusion would be the only result of the amendment.

In addition, when the Legislature has codified the law on any subject, it is, in my opinion, a serious mistake to destroy the value of the codification by the passage at the same session of the Legislature of a large number of acts making separate amendments to the code. To preserve the value of a codification, amendatory legislation should be passed as nearly as possible in codified form. I understand that an ominbius bill to amend the Borough Code is in course of preparation and will be introduced. Any amendments of this code to be made at this session should be incorporated therein.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from his Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 588.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 11, 1931.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I return herewith, without my approval, House Bill No. 588, Printer's No. 37, entitled, "An Act to amend section six hundred and fifty-two of the act approved the second day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one thousand two hundred seventy-eight) entitled 'An act relating to counties of the second third four fifth sixth seventh and eighth classes and revising amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto.'"

This bill proposes an amendment to the County Code of 1929.

For the same reasons which I stated in returning without my approval House Bill No. 905, I am unable to approve the present bill. Its provisions should be embodied in the pending omnibus bill to amend the County Code.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

GIFFORD PINCHOT.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. ADAMS. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time House Bill No. 5, Printer's No. 442, on page 15 of today's calendar, bills on final passage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Flinchbaugh,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 5, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and five of the act approved the ninth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, (P. L. 1684) entitled "An act authorizing and empowering the county treasurers of the several counties of this Commonwealth to sell at public sale all seated lands upon which taxes assessed on such seated lands by authority of any county, borough, town, township, school district, and poor district are delinquent and remain unpaid, and fixing penalties for such delinquency; authorizing county commissioners to purchase such lands under certain circumstances," by extending time for making returns and holding sales and eliminating penalties.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. FLINCHBAUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill amends the so-called "Delinquent Tax Bill" of 1929. The bill of 1929, or the Act of 1929, has a number of very severe features and at the time of its passage I believe it was well-advised legislation, but since 1929 we have had a serious congestion and depression. Many men in the cities and towns are out of employment. In the agricultural districts they had a severe drought and falling of prices on agricultural products, and unless there is some relief for persons unable to pay their taxes and the placing on sale of a large amount of property on seated lands, it will cause widespread distress; and my amendment extends the time for the return of the delinquent taxes to the first Monday of May in the second succeeding year following the levying of the taxes, and extends the time for the sale of property to the first Monday of August in the second succeeding year following the levy of taxes, and it also eliminates the one per cent penalty per month. We have had numerous requests to eliminate this provision in the bill of 1929. I hold in my hand a communication from Peach Bottom Grange No. 1711 of Delta, Pennsylvania, in which they say:

"We believe the addition of one per cent a month to the taxes of delinquents is too drastic as against those who have difficulty in paying their taxes. The provision directing tax sales is sufficiently severe without the one per cent penalty added."

I believe we can do a great favor to those who are in distress by passing this remedial legislation, and I believe where these properties in large numbers are placed on sale for the delinquency of taxes, it will depreciate the value of the real estate in that community to a very marked degree. I have had communications and requests from banks and trust companies asking for this measure to be passed. The House thus far has done nothing in this matter, and I would at least like to see action on this bill. I would appreciate your affirmative vote on this measure.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BARTON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill provides for a division of the State into two sections for the hunting of raccoons. It provides for the season to open in one section of the State fifteen days later than in the other. Therefore, by the passage of this act the raccoon hunter living in the northern counties would be permitted to hunt fifteen days prior to the opening of the season in the southern counties, and the hunter of the southern counties would be permitted to go into the northern counties fifteen days before the opening of the season in his county. I wanted to call the attention of the members of the House to this bill, and I don't think it is advisable to pass legislation of this kind.

Mr. SIMON. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I don't want it to be understood that I am a coon hunter; I don't indulge in that form of sport or pleasure, but I introduced this bill at the request of the coon hunters in the northern section of the State. A few years ago the hunting season for coon was changed and made earlier. We found that it was unfair to our hunters in the northern section of the State because coon are hunted at night and they cannot hunt them after snow falls. After that time they can only be caught by fur trappers who go out and find their tracks in the snow and lay their traps and in that manner catch them. We didn't want to have it changed back because we thought it would be unfair to the southern part of the State. I took this bill up with the Game Commission and they saw no reason why it was not a fair and workable proposition. I have talked to the Attorney General in regard to it and Mr. Schnader told me last evening that he considered it perfectly constitutional and I ask the members to vote "aye" on this bill because it is fair to all the sections of the State.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, it is quite obvious to me that in the calling of this roll there were many who might have voted aye, but were not sufficiently attentive at the time to answer, and I, therefore, hereby make a motion that the vote by which this bill failed be reconsidered.

Mr. HERMANSEN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry will state his point of order.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, some other business must intervene before such a motion can be made.

The SPEAKER. The Chair rules that the point of order is well taken, and that the motion is not in order until some other business has intervened, at which time, if the gentleman desires to do so, he may renew his motion to reconsider the vote.

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 359 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. WHEELER asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 13, 1931.

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That House Bill No. 359, entitled "An act to further amend section one of the act approved the third day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws one hundred and thirty-four) entitled 'An act making the proceedings of the conventions of the Departments of Pennsylvania of the Grand Army of the Republic and the United Spanish War Veterans a part of the public records of the State and providing for their publication and distribution' by imposing the duty of printing such proceedings on the Department of Property and Supplies" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, the remarks made by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry, of course were in order, and new business having now intervened, I renew my motion, namely, that the vote on House Bill No. 331, which brought about the defeat of that bill, be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman who makes the motion vote on the original question?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I voted aye, which was the majority vote.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman understands, of course, that the minority is really in the majority on this question; that is, the noes were in the majority for the reason that the bill failed to pass. Therefore, a motion to reconsider must come from someone who voted in what is the majority, that is who voted against the bill.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill failed to pass finally be reconsidered.

The SPEAKER. Did the gentleman vote in the negative?

Mr. EMHARDT. Mr. Speaker, I did.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Beaver vote?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I voted no.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MUSANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to speak upon this piece of legislation, because I realized that the majority of those present are well acquainted with the features of this bill, as it has been before the House on numerous occasions before, but in view of what has just transpired and in order not to risk the possibility of someone who failed to vote upon this measure using as an argument that he did not know what it meant, let me say for the benefit of the members of this House, that this bill is a measure of health and sanitation. It places those of the barbering profession under such control and regulation that those barbers who are afflicted with contagious disease will be eliminated from the trade. There is no position in which every man more regularly places himself in danger than when he mounts the barber chair. Not only does he subject himself to the possibility of cuts, wounds, and lacerations, at the hands of an inexperienced or untrained barber, but he subjects himself to the greater hazard of incurring some contagious disease, which he unwittingly takes home to his wife, and children and other relatives.

Twenty-nine states of the Union have passed laws similar to this one now before the House and the consequence is that the afflicted barbers in the controlled states leave those states and come to the uncontrolled states, of which Pennsylvania is one; come here with their germ-laden bodies and ply their malignant practice. Pennsylvania should not be the dumping ground for such barbers of undesirable character, and I do not know of any argument which can be advanced against this bill; any argument which will prevent us from setting up a wall to obstruct barbers of such character from getting into our state. The Pennsylvania Federation of Labor is for this bill, organized labor is for this legislation, and, more than that, organized health and sanitation demands the passage of this bill; and I respectfully ask that you give it your favorable consideration.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. PERRY. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know if this act, creating a board, was passed, if it would legislate present master barbers out of business, irrespective of whether they have a disease or not?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, it does not legislate any one out of business, unless it can be demonstrated by a physician that that particular barber does have a contagious disease. When that is demonstrated, he will be legislated out of business, and he ought to be legislated out of business.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, does not this bill confer on barbers the right to practice the art of the medical profession without having any knowledge of the profession?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I would say to the gentleman from Philadelphia, that absolutely it does not.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, may I read to you here on page 5: "all the duties and services incident thereto and is possessed of sufficient knowledge concerning the common diseases of the face and skin to avoid the aggravation and spreading thereof in the practice of said occupation".

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, there is nothing in that section which would qualify a barber to act as a doctor. I certainly would not want to have a doctor who merely had the qualifications mentioned by my friend from Philadelphia.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker, if the barber is to have that knowledge, in order to prevent the spreading of the disease, how can he have that knowledge if he hasn't the education to do it?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, all these barbers must pass a certain examination, and it will then be determined whether they do or do not have the qualifications which fit them for the barbering trade.

Mr. HART. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, I had not intended to talk on this bill, but inasmuch as the gentleman from Allegheny, its sponsor, has been so insistent for the passage of it, I want to call attention to the fact that among the things provided under this bill is the appointment of any number of deputies, to be sent throughout the State of Pennsylvania at the rate of $8 a day. There is no limitation. This board is created, and they have the right to send men and women, possibly wherever they feel disposed. As I have called attention to the fact heretofore, this bill confers on barbers the right to practice the arts of the medical profession without having any qualification at all to do so; and then, further on, on page 5, it confers on the board the right to collect monies in the name of the State of Pennsylvania, without giving any bond for the faithful performance of their duty; in other words, inviting another scandal in Pennsylvania and perhaps another investigation, and surely the condemnation by the courts of this body if this bill should be brought on for review by the courts. If we pass this bill with the full knowledge that it will confer on men the right to collect monies of the State of Pennsylvania, without giving any bond for the safe keeping or security of that money, we become a party to the conspiracy. I ask the gentleman whether that is not a fact?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, without any comment, I shall read to the House page 3, section 5:

"The board shall make a report annually to the Governor which shall set forth in full the receipts and disbursements of the board in itemized account and shall contain a full statement of its doings and proceedings and such recommendations as to it may seem proper looking to the better carrying out of the purposes of this act."

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker. The reason I opposed this bill is that the board with its president and secretary indicates to me——

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman making a speech or asking me a question?

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I am asking you a question.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I do not quite hear you.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I will ask you a question, then I will explain later. Does this bill intend to provide for a board down here permanently?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, it provides for the appointment of a board which shall hold office for three years.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, it will be down here permanently?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, yes.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, it is providing nice fat salaries for a few barbers.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, the bill provides for a per diem of eight dollars and if you call that "nice fat salaries" for such time as they have work to do, then your point is in order.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I wanted to know if it established another commission down here?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, this is a permanent board for three years; that is the extent of its permanency.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, you do insist there will be a board established down here?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, the act specifically states so.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I think this bill should be voted down, for the reason that it is time for this House to realize that we are going too far in expenditures. We are establishing boards, we are putting in appropriations here and there for boards, and for additional expenses, and it is time to stop it. While I am satisfied to see that the barbers are well protected, I am opposed to the establishing of another commission, and for that reason I oppose this bill, and I think everybody here should oppose it, if they would but realize that we are going too far in our expenditures. As I have said time and time again in committees and elsewhere, this House must begin to retrench. If we don't we will end up on the rocks.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I certainly do not wish to cast any reflection upon those who have interrogated me, but I might say that it does not seem to me from their interrogations that they have read accurately this bill.

Now, the question which is presented by the gentleman from Beaver——

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Haws, will state his point of order.

Mr. HAWS. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman has spoken more than twice on this question without unanimous consent.

The SPEAKER. The point of order is well taken. He should have unanimous consent.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I have only spoken on this bill once. On the other occasions I was interrogated, which is not speaking on the bill, and therefore I appeal from the Chair's decision.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman was recognized on two occasions regarding this bill.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, this is now the second time I have been recognized in my own right.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will discover from the notes of the stenographer whether the gentleman has been recognized twice.

The stenographer's notes indicate that the gentleman has been recognized but once for the purpose of addressing this House upon the passage of this bill. He was interrogated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Perry, he was interrogated by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hart, and he was interrogated by the gentleman from Beaver, Mr. Patterson. This is the second time that he has asked to be recognized for the purpose of making a speech, and he is entitled to such recognition. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I did not intend to speak further on this matter, but merely to read for the edification of the gentleman from Beaver, section 6:

"All moneys received by the board from fees or otherwise shall be deposited with the State Treasurer within thirty days from its receipt. All disbursements shall be paid on warrants of the Auditor General on the State Treasurer upon the requisition of the board of examiners."

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Musmanno, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, do I undertand that this section 6 means that all moneys received by this board when turned into the State will be used to pay the expense of this commission?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, Yes.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, and do you think that there will be enough money to pay these expenses?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, well, I don't know how much money will be taken in.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, that is just what is worrying me. Is there a right to appeal from this board, supposing that a barber wants to appeal?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, yes; there is a right of appeal. You will find it in one of the latter sections.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, you say they have the right to appeal?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, yes; you will find it in those latter sections.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, where is it?

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, section 14.

Mr. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, what line?

Mr. MUSMANNO. I will show you the line.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, ladies and gentlemen of the House, it seems to me as if this bill by this time has grown a pretty heavy beard. It looks to me as if it is in need of a hair cut and, I move, Mr. Speaker, that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Law and Order for a shave and a hair cut.

Mr. SCHWARTZ. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker, this is a new motion made, therefore——

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of opinion that a motion to recommit is in order, but hardly for the purposes mentioned.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I accept your amendment and will cut out the shave and hair cut.

The SPEAKER. There being no second to the motion the question cannot be put.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume the consideration of Senate Bill No. 178, on Final Passage, postponed for the present, entitled:

An Act to amend section four of an act approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. L. 286), entitled "An act to provide for the health, safety, and welfare of minors: By forbidding their employment or work in certain establishments and occupations, and under certain establishments and occupations, and under certain specified ages; by restricting their hours of labor, and regulating certain conditions of their employment by requiring employment certificates for certain minors, and prescribing the kinds thereof, and the rules for the issuance, reissuance, filing, return, and recording of the same; by providing that the Industrial Board shall, under certain conditions, determine and declare whether certain occupations are within the prohibitions of this act; requiring that certain minors shall, during the period of their employment, attend certain schools, to be established as therein provided, and to be approved by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and regulating the conditions of such attendance; authorizing the State Board of Education, in certain cases to appoint attendance officers to aid in enforcing the provisions of this act, and creating the salary and expenses of such officers a charge against the school district wherein they are employed; requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted; providing for the enforcement of this act by the commissioner of Labor and Industry, the attendance officers of school districts, and police officers; and defining the procedure in prosecutions thereunder, and establishing certain presumptions in relation thereto; providing penalties for the violation of the provisions thereof; and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent therewith," by changing the hours of labor permitted for minors under sixteen years of age and prescribing a daily lunch period of not less than forty-five minutes for certain employed minors.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PRINCE. Mr. President, I have no desire to influence, and shall not attempt to influence, the action of any Senator on this measure. As for myself, I have heard expressions of disappointment at my negative vote on this bill when it was up for final passage last week, the idea being that men engaged in the vocation of teaching are supposed to be sympathetic with the aims of social legislation. Mr. President, they are and they ought to be, but I do not believe this bill is a necessary or desirable piece of social legislation.

I would not, for anything, hang a millstone around the neck of childhood, or interpose one obstruction to the free and happy and wholesome development of youth; but I believe that if this bill becomes a law, while it may do good to some children, it will prove detrimental to others, and to their parents as well,—and it will do more harm to its victims than it will do good to its beneficiaries.

Mr. President, we have today a generation of young folks who are growing without discipline and without habits of industry. You cannot get the average youngster of that age to touch a dish rag or a broom, or even throw a shovelfull of coal on the furnace. Now, I realize that children from fourteen to sixteen are more susceptible to good and evil influence than at any other age, and I believe that a boy or a girl of that age who is not at school ought to be at work.

I have received a good many requests to change my vote, but I can see no reason for doing so! and I have received no request from any source to vote against this bill, but it seems to me, Mr. President, that what our young folks need is not protection against honest, if arduous, toil, but against the dangers and the dissipations of unsupervised idleness.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, in response to the Senator from Cumberland, Dr. Prince, I have every respect for his opinion, but the trouble with him is, he has thought too much about this bill, and, it seems to me, has lost his sense of proportion. Now, there are other Senators who have not thought enough about it, and I am aware that the State Chamber of Commerce is against this bill,—and that may be one reasson I am for it. It is very difficult for the State Chamber of Commerce to discover any new ideas. If they were on Columbus' ship and land were in sight, they would turn around rather than discover it, I am inclined to think.

The answer, it seems to me, is this: Pennsylvania is no more of an industrial State than are New York, Ohio and Illinois; and those states have had such legislation for years. Why we should hesitate to do the children a kind act when those three states have engaged in such work for years, is more than I can understand.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I, like Senator Woodward, do not like to disagree with the Senator from Cumberland, Dr. Prince, who is an educator; but there is nothing in this bill that is going to turn these small children loose, it is purely a humanitarian measure. The prosperity of this country depends as much on the physical development of youth as it does on the mental development, and this bill applies to children under the age of sixteen. It originally was eighteen, and was reduced in committee to sixteen; and the original bill called for forty-four hours while this bill calls for forty-eight.

Now, any good thinking person, a man who has his heart in the welfare of the growing generation, cannot but believe that a child up to sixteen years of age who does eight hours of work a day is having his full burden of employment imposed upon him. This is not an effort to put these children out of work; it is not an effort to put these children on the streets; it is an effort to protect their physical welfare in order that they may grow up to be manly men. It is for the development of their bodies,—and in the development of the bodies of the young men of this Commonwealth you are building up men who in the hour of need may mean more to the welfare and the standing not only of the State of Pennsylvania but the whole United States government.

It was a sad commentary on the young men of America, in the last war, when we found so many defective youths. Build up the strength, build up the manhood, build up the physical ability of your young boys and you have built a nation that can well stand before the eyes of the world and challenge any condition, any circumstance that may arise.

It may be that men in factories, it may be that the Chamber of Commerce, it may be that merchants, in their eagerness and hunger for the almighty dollar, may see a reason why this bill should not be passed; but American manhood, humanity and the love of father and mother for their children, and their welfare, demand that this bill be passed,—and Pennsylvania honor itself.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, if, instead of being a forty-eight hour labor bill, it is not a thirty-six labor bill because of the fact that these boys would have to attend continuation school.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I believe that is true.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, then, instead of working forty-eight hours these boys would be allowed to work only thirty-six hours?

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President, I believe that is true, but they are receiving their education.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I may add, for the benefit of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that that has been the case in all these bills since child labor legislation was first passed,—they have had one day a week, absolutely. It does not change that at all.

Mr. SORDONI. Mr. President, I wish I could express myself as adequately as does the Senator from Philadelphia, but I am not an attorney and do not know a great deal of their methods. However, I do know something about the practical solution of these problems; and if the Senate will take into consideration, on the problem of this serious question of taking a boy in a line of production with older people, and have that boy able to work only a certain number of hours whereas other people in the same line,—we will say in the same line of production,—would have to work on hour longer or a half hour longer, it would mean that that boy would not be employed in a certain line because it would retard production on a particular piece of work,—so that, they could not possibly give him employment.

I think this bill would prove a hardship on a great many boys,—in fact, I know it from practical experience, not from a theoretical standpoint.

BILL ON THIRD READING POSTPONED FOR THE PRESENT

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 285, entitled:

An Act empowering cities, towns and townships of the first class, to regulate and license by ordinance, any transient, retail business for the sale of goods, wares and merchandise; and to prohibit the doing of business without a license.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, as this bill has been on the calendar for a long time, I would ask the sponsor of the bill to explain it to the Senate.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, this bill merely provides that municipalities, towns, may pass ordinances compelling transient merchants,—what we call, in slang parlance, "fly-by-night" merchants—to be licensed before they can set up a business. It is designed to correct the evil that is in vogue at the present time,—where, for instance, there is a bankrupt failure and then some slickers come along and fill the store up with cheap goods, to the detriment of the buying public. This bill is intended to pass on to those units of government authority to legislate against that sort of thing in their own counties.

MAJORITY REPORT OF SUB-COMMITTEE OF MANAGERS OF JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE

Mr. EARNEST: This being the date fixed for the final report of the Judiciary General Committee on the investigation, I will ask the Senate to hear the report. There are three reports from the Sub-Committee, and with the permission of the President and the Senate, I will ask Senator McClure to read the report of the majority of the Committee, and Senator Buckman to read the report of a part of the minority members of the Committee, and Senator Woodward to read the report that he desires to make:

To the Honorable President and Members of the Senate of the State of Pennsylvania:

Your Committee, appointed and acting in pursuance of a resolution, dated February 3rd, 1931, reported preliminary on the tenth day of March, 1931. It now desires to report finally and make its recommendations. It is deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon it, and has been ever mindful of the purpose as set forth in the resolution creating it and of the obligations which its appointment imposed. All of its hearings have been open to the public and the public has been invited to appear and furnish information. It has also subpoenaed many witnesses, who have testified before it, and, in addition to these witnesses, His Excellency, the Governor, appeared with the proviso that he be not interrogated.

It would serve no useful purpose to delineate and recount in detail the more than two thousand pages of testimony which has been adduced, since it has had the widest dissemination through the public press. The greater part of it has consisted of determined and disagreeable contentions between the ratepayer and the utility, public officials and patrons, and partisans of one school of thought regarding corporate valuations and the other. Those portions of the testimony which have in any wise been constructive will be averted to by the recommendations hereinafter set forth, and the entire record is appended hereto.

No definite and workable solution of the broad problem confronting you and us, your representatives for investigation and report, has been suggested or presented; there, however, has been much criticism. Although the greater portion of it was not constructive, it has been sufficient to move and warrant us in making several specific recommendations regarding the subject, within the purview of the resolution.

It is our duty, and therefore has been, and remains, our purpose to evolve a plan through legislation, whereby the ratepayer is required to pay none but a fair and just rate, and also permitted to make full and complete complaint against any inequality or injustice regarding the rate he pays. It is also our thought that the investor must be assured of the real value and proper return upon his investments, and the utility have the opportunity, upon a just rate, to earn a just return for distribution to its investors and for the betterment and enlargement of its service and business; all of which activities shall be subject to public investigation, regulation, supervision and eventual review by the courts. These views we announced in our preliminary report; we still believe them to be sound, and we see no reason to depart from them; for, in our judgment, as we then said, such a program is bound to establish public confidence in the conduct of the utility business, its rates and investments, and to stabilize all business conditions, which is required and desired in this day of depression and unemployment. The reason all should strive to achieve this result at this time seems to us so self-evident that it is axiomatic.

Over six millions of people are without employment in the United States, and the State of Pennsylvania has its per centum quota of them. This may comprise a fertile field and a propitious time to play politics, through their distress, but we conceive it to be the duty at least of the Legislative Branch of the Government to eliminate all politics from the situation and to confine its efforts to evolving remedies to improve existing conditions and to alleviate the sufferings of the unemployed.

Let us address ourselves, then, to a sane solution of this problem and endeavor to stabilize business by correcting wrongs and abuses in the public service field where we find them, being careful all the while not to injure unduly or destroy that business, to the great detriment of our people; for, in this instance, to eliminate wrongs and abuses by destroying that to which they adhere is no worthwhile remedy. We do not propose that a foundation for the well-being of thousands of our citizens, in so far as we may be able to influence the situation, shall be uprooted and wrecked by propaganda, which in no wise assists in the regulation of the abuses, but tends only to continue and intensify business instability and thus prevent people who are without work from obtaining employment.

The people of Pennsylvania should not be misled into the belief that all public utilities are venal bodies, which prey upon them; such a charge of implication is too broad and sweeping either to carry conviction or bear scrutiny. They should be advised that there exist properly conducted utilities and that those which are not properly conducted will be regulated by agencies of the State into propriety. While believing that evils in corporate management should be rooted out, yet we cannot follow the suggestion of His Excellency, the Governor, or others, who believe that improperly conducted utilities are in danger of destruction by a revolution of the kind once carried on in France, with its murder, guillotine and gruesomeness. The danger of such views, publicly expressed, is that reckless adherents interpret them as a banner for outbursts of the kind recently made before us, when a witness, in a position to lead others, testified that certain rates would be resisted, even though the militia was sent to enforce their collection. In a democracy like ours, no bid for power should be permitted to weaken, let alone destroy, any structure of Government. The people instead should be advised that wrongs and abuses will be remedied by a meritorious regulation, under the law, through duly constituted authorities. Therefore, we conceive it to be the obligation of the Legislative Branch of the Government to effect by law the proper regulation of public service corporations by providing methods and means to that end. We are convinced that this problem, as a whole, can only be solved with certainty and success through the agency of temperate, disinterested minds, trained in business and economy, after sufficient time for careful and complete study, and we shall later point out the way an agency may be obtained and used, which will consist in a large part of men so equipped.

One of the most basic issues now most seriously and properly mooted, is that of corporate or utility valuation, and to determine it hastily, and without the most careful study and research, would do dire damage to ratepayers, investors and utilities alike. Therefore, it must be so studied before a comprehensive decision is reached. However, there are methods and means which should be applied immediately, which in our judgment require a change in the present laws. The first and foremost is that the Public Service Commission should be removed, as far as it is humanly possible to do so, from the sphere and atmosphere of politics. We believe that the Commission and all of its members should be placed in a position where they shall not be either the servitors of, or in any wise subservient to, any Branch of the Government, and thus we do not believe that they should be placed in a position where any separate branch of the Government shall have sole power to remove them. Even though the Legislative Branch of the Government has the acknowledged right to retain such power over Public Service Commissioners, since under the law they are our agents, yet for their protection and freedom of judgment we have always felt it wise to accord some of our functions to another Branch of the Government, namely, the Executive. It now appears to us that the Executive is attempting, if not desiring, to make the Commission subservient to it alone. This would tend to destroy its freedom of action and judgment; we feel that we must relieve the Commission from the possibility of all domination, if it is to remain free and unfettered, in order that it shall be impartial and do equity to all elements interested in and affected by its decisions.

It should never be forgotten that in providing the method by which the Public Service Commission is to be appointed and removed, and the laws through which it is to regulate public service corporations, we are establishing the means whereby the largest industrial and business enterprises in the Commonwealth are to be carried on and conducted—enterprises whose activities affect all the people in their everyday life, which employ billions of capital, hundreds of thousands of individuals, and have scores of thousands of investors. All these facts must be remembered in passing on the demand of a Governor that the Chief Executive shall have the power to remove the Commission at pleasure. The law should be so fashioned that the power to remove cannot be interpreted to mean, or applied as, the power to coerce at pleasure the Commission, the utilities, the ratepayers or the investors, in order that any of these elements shall be employed to advance the political ambitions of those whose pleasure might dictate or demand that course.

So that the Public Service Commission shall be an independent and unfettered agency, we recommend that the Superior Court of the State of Pennsylvania, that part of the Judicial Branch of the Government to which on appeal the Commission reports as a fact finding body, rather than the Governor, the Executive Branch of the Government, shall be designated to name, or nominate and remove the members of the Public Service Commission, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of Pennsylvania and recommend that legislation be enacted immediately to that effect. We believe that such delegation of so much of our power to that court will tend to remove the Commission from politics, and give it that freedom of action which shall assure to all its non-partisan and impartial judgment.

While our investigation has disclosed omissions and errors of judgment by members of the present Commission, no venality or corruption on their part has been found, and the recommendation last made by us is predicated on our belief that any Commission to be successful and free from that character of criticism which gives rise to suspicions detrimentally affecting its capacity for service, must be removed as far from politics as possible.

Furthermore, we believe, and therefore recommend that the powers of the Public Service Commission should be increased and augmented, as we have advised heretofore, in order that it shall have full and complete authority to investigate and determine all things beneficial to the ratepayer, the investor and the utility; that the appropriation to the Public Service Commission should be increased to that amount which will assure the application of regulation wherever needed, through a sufficient, properly organized staff, to include necessary additional employes in its various bureaus, as well as additional examiners. The latter should be given power to make findings of fact which, when adopted by the Commission, shall be the findings of fact of that body, just as the findings of a referee become the findings of a court, and thus assist in expediting final decisions. Through such a system the Commission, at all periods will have the assistance of competent agents to complete expeditiously its duties in connection with the vast interests to be affected, and in order that the ratepayers' complaints shall be promptly heard and determined. Without such assistance, however, no Commission, with a will to do, can perform its duty. As we have heretofore advised, no rate should go into effect until it has been in some manner and to some degree passed upon by the Commission, or until the Commission has been given opportunity so to do, and in order, that the question of the rate may be expeditiously determined, machinery ample to afford opportunity for prompt hearing and immediate determination must be furnished.

In our prior report, we recommended that securities shall be issued by Public Utilities only after approval by the Commission; we adhere to that recommendation.

We see no reason to depart from another preliminary recommendation, that a People's Counsel, under the jurisdiction of the Attorney General, should be created for the benefit of the ratepayer. To our mind, the Public Service Commission should not, under any circumstances, be the partisan of either the ratepayer, the investor, or the utility. It should remain an impartial umpire for all. Therefore, since the utility and the investor are able to employ counsel, and the ratepayer in many instances may not be, we feel that the State of Pennsylvania should supply that ratepayer with competent counsel to represent him and assert his complaint.

Finally, we believe that a Commission should be appointed to study and report to the next regular session of the Legislature findings and conclusions on the subject of utility regulation as a whole, and that this Commission should consist of the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee of the Senate; with one other member of the Senate of Pennsylvania appointed by the President Pro Tempore; the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee of the House; with one other member of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker; and three additional members to be appointed by the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. As we have heretofore said, a question of major importance in the determination of this entire mater is corporate valuation. We believe that the question of corporate valuation, after all, is properly one for the decision of the courts; therefore, we feel that when the study here involved is entered upon, the Courts should have a prominent place in the selection of those who are to make it.

Much testimony and time has been given and taken before us relative to the alleged abuses engaged in by certain utilities. It is the hope of all that those abuses belong to the past alone; but, as they affect the ratepayer, it is our duty to provide for regulation which will prevent them in the future. This we are endeavoring to do. So far as past abuses have affected and do affect those interested in or associated with particular utilities, they can be corrected only through the courts. Therefore, it is of no avail for us to discuss them further. The evidence is in our public records and may be had by those who desire or require it for proceedings in the courts.

The Senate of Pennsylvania has been criticized by the Executive Branch of our Government rather severely, and we feel, unjustly, before we had opportunity to act or report. Suffice it to say in this regard, that such criticism has in no way deterred us from what we feel to be our duty. Indeed, we have gone far outside those things germane to the resolution appointing us, in an endeavor, as we believe you desired, to obtain every fact or factor which might tend to establish anything beneficial to our investigation, no matter how remote. We have permitted the Governor to have his own counsel before us, to make all the inquiry and investigation which he desired, and to do it in his own way. Our meetings, however, among the members of the Committee, have been conducted with a degree of harmony and faithful endeavor which has resulted in what we feel, and we know you desire, shall be of benefit to the people of the entire State. We possibly could, and should, resent the injustice of the early criticism already mentioned, but if we have carried out your purpose under the resolution, for the benefit of the people of Pennsylvania, our resentment is dispelled.

We cannot conclude our report without reference to the merited commendation which our learned and faithful counsel, Charles J. Hepburn, Esq., evokes from us all. His fairness, good judgment and abilities have been of untold help and benefit to your Committee through the entire investigation.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM H. EARNEST,

MINORITY REPORT OF THE SUB-COMMITTEE OF MANAGERS OF THE JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE

Mr. BUCKMAN. Before proceeding to read the report of certain members of the Sub-Committee of Managers of the Judiciary General Committee I desire to challenge the statement made by the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, that the report just read by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, represents the majority vote either as a Sub-Committee of Managers of the committee on Judiciary General, or the majority vote of the members present at the meeting of the Judiciary General Committee this afternoon when that report was submitted to that committee.

Mr. President, with your permission I shall proceed to read the report of certain members of that Sub-Committee;

TO THE JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

The undersigned being Members of the Sub-Committee of the Senate Judiciary General Committee appointed under Senate Resolution No. 1 to investigate the charges made against the Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the law relating to public service companies, respectfully report as follows:

The Sub-Committee has held hearings and examined a large number of witnesses and a great amount of evidence concerning the subject matter of the investigation has been taken. There has been insufficient opportunity to get to the bottom of the great and complicated questions involved during the time at the disposal of the Committee. However, the undersigned have reached the following conclusions and feel confident that they are correct:

1. That the Public Service Commission has failed to a material extent in administering the Public Service Company Law for the protection of the public interest and that the Commission has utterly lost the confidence of the public.

2. Due to lack of active and energetic use of the opportunities at the disposal of the Commission in the existing law, public utilities have been allowed in various and wide-spread instances to fail in the giving of that service legally and morally required of public utilities in their dealing with the public, and also have often been allowed to charge unfair rates for service rendered with a wide-spread discrimination as between classes of service especially reflected in high charges to small consumers.

3. The undersigned feel that this condition can only be removed by amending the law so that the Governor shall have power to remove members of the Public Service Commission whenever he is convinced that any the Commissioners are failing to perform their duties either because of inactivity or wrongful conduct.

4. That amendments to the following effect be adopted by the General Assembly at this session in order to strengthen the present law and compel better administrative work by the Public Service Commission:

(a) That additional assistant counsel, engineers and accountants be provided for in order that there may be opportunity to assist the public and save it expense in presenting its complaints to the Commission.

(b) That gas, electric and water meters shall be inspected promptly and at minimum cost by State agents instead of by the public utilities themselves.

(c) That as far as possible under the Federal and our State Constitutions a fixed basis upon which to compute a fair return to the public utilities shall be established along the lines of what is known as prudent investment, namely, the actual cost for project works and facilities less depreciation instead of the present vaue of such project works which fluctuates day by day.

(d) Relief to municipalities so that if they are not well served by public utilities they may acquire and administer their own water, light or gas plants for the purpose of giving good service at low rates to their citizens.

(e) That the public utilities are entitled to fair and even generous treatment; they shall be allowed to earn a fair profit and only a fair profit; and that their excess earnings shall be either returned to the public by being paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury or by being set aside as a fund to form the basis for better service and lower rates.

(f) That the Commission shall have sixty days after notification in which to consider security issues and if the Commission believe such issues to be unnecessary or unsound to disapprove them.

(g) That holding companies and companies and interests so affiliated with public utilities that they either control their business or materially affect the charges for such extensions, than that which reflects the actual prudent cost thereof to the utility companies.

(i) That complicated rate structures, minimum, standby, ready to serve, penalties and other fixed charges, and "spreads" of rate charges between classes shall be eliminated, as far as possible, and shall reflect only the approximate difference of cost involved with the intent of protecting the small consumer from the present tendency to make him pay more in proportion for service than is paid by the large consumer.

(j) Restricting the life of charters, grants and franchises to a definite period, in order that posterity may not, when conditions are entirely changed, be saddled with grants of this kind in perpetuity which give to favored individuals an opportunity to collect tribute from the public indefinitely.

(k) That rates shall not be established in the first place, or increased thereafter, without the approval of the Commission, in order that the public may be saved from the present always excessive, and many times prohibitive, cost of carrying on long fights against exhorbitant rates before the Public Service Commission. This is imperative for the protection of the public interest and would work automatically.

5. Last and comprehensive of all, the law should directly order the Commission that it must at all times represent and protect the public interest and save the general complaining public from poor service, discrimination and unfair charges of rates, and must at the same time, in protection of the public in service involved, see to it that a fair return may be earned by public utilities, so long as they conduct themselves frankly and fairly in their business with the public.

6. The Public Service Commission has complained that its failure, if any, to protect the public interest has been due to lack of personnel, funds and power. The undersigned grant that in the first two particulars the Commission may be right to some extent, but hereby report that the present law gives to the Commission, through its own Counsel and the Attorney General's Department, ample authority and power to enforce the law and proceed by injunction, mandamus, quo warranto and other means known to the law, to compel public utilties to perform their duties thoroughly and properly. The Commission has failed to take advantage of the powers and the opportunities directly in its hands. We also recommend that sufficient money be appropriated to cover expenses of counsel to Committees, Stenographers, etc.

Respectfully submitted,

CLARENCE J. BUCKMAN,
GEORGE T. WEINGARTNER.

REPORT OF HONORABLE GEORGE WOODWARD, MEMBER OF SUB-COMMITTEE OF MANAGERS OF JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I would like to make two statements. In the first place, this draft from which I am about to read has been written by the able and too modest Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, and is only my adopted child, though very safe and sane; and, in the second place, the constructive legislation referred to has not been catalogued, but will have to be anticipated until next week.

TO THE JUDICIARY GENERAL COMMITTEE OF THE SENATE OF PENNSYLVANIA:

Your sub-committee appointed under a resolution of the Senate to inquire into the subject of public utilities and the conduct of the Public Service Commission of the State of Pennsylvania in relation thereto, beg leave to report that we have performed our duty to the best of our ability. We have had numerous meetings, called before us many witnesses, and taken testimony, which fills 2000 typewritten pages. While we have labored under many handicaps, we believe we may say in all modesty that the information gained in the course of our investigation may be made the basis of much valuable legislation, and will help chart the future policy of the State on the subject.

We wish to report that we have found no evidence of corruption or venality among the members of the Board of Public Service Commissioners, so far as any direct testimony discloses. We believe, however, that the attitude of mind has grown among the members that the body should function as an impartial court rather than as a commission, active and alert to see that the rights of the public are properly safeguarded as well as of the investor and the utility itself. This result has been brought about in part by lack of proper assistance and aids to perform the duties of the commission and by an indifferent attitude on the part of the public. We have recommended in our preliminary report certain changes in the law which, we feel, will largely remedy the defects in the present law and will make of the Public Service Commission a properly functioning body.

The changes are: (are blank until next week).

We now again recommend the same.

We also recommend that a commission be appointed to investigate further the whole subject of public utility law and make report thereon to the next Session of the Legislature. We recognize the limited time and facilities at our disposal have made it impossible to make a full and complete investigation and report such as the nature of the subject warrants. We do not favor the principle of abolishing the Public Service Commission as a body or by ending the terms of all its members, unless there be disclosed by the investigation now in progress in the House some evidence of venality by such members, which your Sub-committee has not found. We feel that the abolishment of the present Board as a body will set a bad precedent and will have a very bad effect upon the stability of investments and of bond issues held by our citizens.

As we have recommended the appointment of a commission to make report at the next Session of the Legislature, anything we might attempt at this time will be of a temporary nature. The removal of the entire Board of Public Service Commissioners at one time would result in the appointment of an entirely new Board of inexperienced men, which might have very unfavorable results, especially at this time of business depression. On the other hand, we feel that the present uncertainty in relation to the Board now in office should be ended with reasonable promptness; that the Committee on Executive Nominations should be requested to make a report on the nominations before it, and that all efforts be made to expedite appropriate legislation to make the Public Service Commission function more effectively in the interests of all concerned.

If the present Board of Commissioners should be relieved of office and others appointed in their places, we believe the appointing power can only properly be placed in the hands of the Governor, subject to the advice and consent of the Senate.

We desire to express our appreciation of the services rendered by Senator William H. Earnest and his committee of managers.

GEORGE WOODWARD.

QUESTIONS OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, has credited me with the authorship of the report which he has just read. I think it only proper to state that the report was suggested by me merely as a skeleton outline. The haste with which the reports were submitted and reported out today has made it impossible to complete that report; and I suggested that a brief report be made up from the material in the two other reports which have been read here this evening.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, putting aside for the time being the challenge of the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, as Chairman of the Sub-committee of Managers I would like to make some remarks relative to the report made by Mr McClure.

In the third book of Blackstone, Chapter 4, page 32, reference is made to what the author called the lowest and at the same time the most expeditious court of justice known to the law of England. It was called the court of "pie poudre," so called from the dusty feet of the suitors, or according to Sir Edward Coke, because justice is there done as speedily as dust can fall from the foot. It was a court of record incident to every fair and market of which the steward was the judge. Its jurisdiction extended to the administration of justice for commercial injuries done in that fair or market. "The injury," said the author, "must be done, complained of, heard and determined in the compass of one and the same day, unless the fair continues longer." It would be a most excellent thing if wisdom could sit enthroned to determine justice with such expedition and dispatch; then it could be said that wisdom had reached her zenith and that many of the ills of humanity would be solved.

Under the common law common carriers, innkeepers, and others engaged in public employment were subject to regulation by the courts. Persons engaged in such service were held to certain duties, for example, they were compelled to exercise a certain degree of care and to render service to all who might apply. In addition to such common law jurisdiction, the Legislature "in the exercise of its police power, may impose other restrictions in the interest of the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the public." With the growth of public utility companies the Legislature, from time to time, enacted statutes for supervision over such corporation exercising quasi public functions. Some of these statutes included the regulation of rates and charges of common carriers and the Courts held such enactments to be constitutional, although such Legislative power seemed to be exercised in derogation of the principle that the management of property belongs to its owner. There is now no question but that the Legislature may impose special duties and restrictions upon public service companies, and legislative regulation of such companies has been given to such bodies as the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Pennsylvania State Public Service Commission.

When the Interstate Commerce Commission was established there were those who thought that such an innovation should not be made. The vast majority, feeling that regulation by such a body was needed and knowing that legislative regulation was not sufficient nor flexible enough, were concerned with but one subject and that whether or not the courts should have a narrow review or a broad review of such regulation. The kind of review was finally left to the Courts.

By the year 1913 the Legislature of Pennsylvania deemed it wise to enact a Public Service Company Law. At that time it was hailed as a far-reaching and excellent means of regulation. Article V., Section 1, gave to the Public Service Commission "general administrative power and authority * * * to supervise and regulate all public service companies doing business within this Commonwealth," and provided that "said power and authority shall include the power to inquire into and regulate the service, rates, fares, tolls or charges of any and all public service companies."

The Pennsylvania Public Service Commission, under this statute, has a great many functions, one of them being the granting of certificates of public convenience where the question is usually to determine between two agencies equally able and willing to serve the people.

The most important function of the Commission, and the most far-reaching, is that of the regulation of the service and rates of all public service companies doing business within the Commonwealth. It is the power of fixing rates and the exercise of the power that puts regulation on trial at the present time. Rates must be reasonable on the one hand, and not confiscatory of property on the other. In order to establish rates it becomes necessary to place a value upon the property of the utility company. There are often wide differences of opinion on this question of value, hence the regulatory body often suffers unpopularity in its decisions on this subject. Unfortunately the proposition is a technical one, and practice before the Commission has become a more or less technical matter. The untechnical complainant, and even the regular practitioner of law, is at a disadvantage in rate cases before the Commission. The practice should be simplified and made conformable to public interests, its adjustments simpler and easier, with reparations as a matter of course without trouble and expense.

Perhaps it is difficult to define with finality the exact functions and duties of a Public Service Commission. It is a fact-finding body that sits in judgment upon its own findings. In certain proceedings in court the Court does the same thing, but in the ordinary trial of cases the jury is the fact-finding body. If a Public Service Commission is to be entirely a peoples' agency, some other independent agency not engaged in the litigation would have to be created to determine the issue; or the alternative would be to make the Public Service Commission the arbitrator and set up a peoples' agency as a separate entity. This applies, of course, to rate cases. This would cost an enormous amount of money and ought not be necessary.

There are numerous cases in the State and Federal courts on the basis or bases to be used for finding the value on which a return is to be permitted. It will take some time for all parties concerned, Congress, Legislatures, Commissions and the Courts, to arrive at an accurate and conclusive rate base.

The Public Service Company Act, Article V., Section 20 (a) provides the elements of value which may be considered by the Commission in the determination of "fair value." In the Commission Reports and Orders this is usually referred to as "Fair Value For Rate Making Purposes."

Among the elements specifically mentioned are:

(a) The original cost of construction, particularly with reference to the amount expended in the existing and useful permanent improvement.

(b) Market value of stocks and bonds.

(c) Probable earning capacity of the property under particular rates prescribed by statute or ordinance, etc.

(d) Expenditures for obsolete equipment and construction, as the circumstances and the historical development of the enterprise may warrant.

(e) The reproduction cost of the property, based upon the fair average prices of materials, property and labor.

(f) The developmental and going concern value.

(g) Any other elements of value.

A short legislative inquiry cannot settle the matter of corporate or utility valuation, although growing out of the inquiry certain remedial legislation has been proposed.

The investigation by the Senate has probably fallen short of accomplishing all that might have been desired. It has helped, however, in my opinion, to clear the atmosphere considerably, and I believe much good will eventuate from the airing.

On February 16th the Governor wrote:

"I do not propose to be concerned or connected with any attempt to sidetrack a thoroughing public utility investigation. The Earnest Investigating Committee is under grave suspicion of being set up not to investigate but to whitewash the public utilities."

And in the same letter said:

"Many thanks also for your invitation to Judge Woodruff. Until your Committee has demonstrated that it is engaged in a thoroughgoing attempt to uncover the truth, it will not be desirable for him to accept your invitation."

I submit an observation that when he wrote this letter he made an unwarranted charge against the Sub-Committee of Managers, as well as the whole Judiciary General Committee composed of over half the membership of the Senate, and in fact against the whole Senate which unanimously passed the Resolution for the Investigation.

With this lack of co-operation, and open hostility as expressed from time to time, without money for the employment of auditors, accountants, engineers, counsel or the ordinary expenses of the proceeding undertaken, the Committee began its work. It secured the voluntary services of Charles J. Hepburn, Esq., and his assistant, Thomas B. Hart, Esq., and the Governor employed, at public expense, William A. Gray, Esq. The Governor presumably at public expense, has given to the House Investigating Committee a former member of the Commission as counsel, as well as one or more other attorneys and has supplied auditors and accountants.

The testimony submitted with report will show that many matters were probed into. The doors were thrown wide open for the investigation of charges made against the Public Service Commission and of the members and administrative personnel thereof, and political activities of the public utility companies as far as the Public Service Commission is concerned. There was also considerable testimony taken concerning the Public Service Company Law now upon the statute books of the Commonwealth and suggestions for its amendment in many particulars.

No one can get off scott free. The present Governor held the same office for four years at a preceding period. On the charges he made he could have proceeded then or now under Article IV., Section 15, of the Public Service Company Law, wherein it is provided:

> "The Governor, by and with the consent of the Senate, may remove any commissioner, or any of the counsel to the commission, for inefficiency, neglect of duty, or misconduct in office, giving him a copy of the charges against him, and affording him an opportunity to be publicly heard, in person or by counsel, in his own defense, upon not less than ten days' notice. If such commissioner shall be removed, the Governor shall file in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth a complete statement of all charges made against such commissioner, and his finding thereon, together with a complete record of the proceedings."

If utility companies have disobeyed the law, relief can be had through the office of the Attorney General. The Executive under the Administrative Code may exercise a certain amount of vigilant oversight and control of the personnel and counsel of the Commission.

If the Commission was not wide enough awake, no one not even the Legislature itself attempted to pinch them out of lethargy.

The investigation has forced public attention to such an extent that utility companies have been overhauling their schedules and some have reduced their rates; and the Commission itself, undermanned as it is, seems now to be personally awake to public demands.

Much of the testimony was devoted to matters relating to the P. R. T. and Mitten Management. It developed that the matter of the underliers, the taxicab situation and their financial affairs have often occupied a front page in the news and that some proceedings came before the Public Service Commission and the Courts. It was testified that Mr. Maltie and a group of certified public accountants employed by the city of Philadelphia had made a long and perhaps unsatisfactory audit of financial transactions. It is certainly futile to expect a Legislative Committee, with no funds at its disposal, and in a limited time, to sift to the bottom a many million-dollar concern and learn all about its business and financial affairs.

These matters are at present in the hands of the Courts. During and after the Receivership the Public Service Commission might well undertake the employment of a group of experts to make a re-examination of its physical property, its financial structure and whole property value so as to arrive at the facts for a comprehensive and proper settlement of its relation to Philadelphia and the general public, and to come to a satisfactory regulation of rates.

The Scranton and Spring Brook Water Cases are likewise in the hands of the Courts. Charges were made that rates were excessive and that the Commission favored the utility company. If the Courts do not find and confirm a satisfactory conclusion, the Commission can easily set up the same kind of a body as that suggested in the P. R. T. situation and with its bureaus make an investigation independent of the former complainants and the present owners of the utilities, in order to settle the very important question involved. This seems to have been the largest case of its kind before the Commission. It involves many millions of dollars in money and is the concern of the people in a large and important section of the Commonwealth.

I would like to see the Public Service Commission require from every water, light and power company doing business in Pennsylvania a valuation or a re-valuation of its property, beginning with the companies whose reports tend to indicate excessive profit returns.

I would like to see the whole utility situation which is now so complicated and confused brought into reasonable certainty with less of interlacing and overlapping than seemed to be the case at present. These are matters for study and settlement outside of the domain of politics and denunciation.

The Attorney General's office and the Public Service Commission together might well make a study of the financing of water and power companies by Holding Companies, and if any remedial legislation is necessary, report to the next session of the General Assembly.

It would, in my opinion, be a good thing if a summary of Annual Reports were published just as bank statements are now published; an interested public would no doubt be vigilant to protect its rights.

Regulation of public utilities must be strengthend but meanwhile there is no reason for revolutionary alarm. The orderly processes of law must be maintained.

The removal of the present Commissioners and the appointment of their successors by the Superior Court of Pennsylvania will renew public confidence in utility regulation, and will help to bring about in an honest, fair, reasonable and statesmanlike way better administration of justice and a happier understanding between and among the citizens of this great Commonwealth.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I want to make reply to the remarks the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, made after I read the report of the majority of the members of the committee on Judiciary General, adopted this afternoon. As a matter of fact, this report was not read in the committee on Judiciary General at the meeting this afternoon but there was a report read yesterday afternoon which could not be agreed on. It was distinctly understood when we left the meeting that any of those members of the committee would subscribe to a different report, and would make any changes they saw fit to make in that report before them, after they left the meeting.

Senator Buckman had that privilege, and I am quite sure Senator Woodward will bear me out, and I believe Senator Ealy was to help in it, if necessary.

The only member of the committee on Judiciary General, this afternoon, who asked to see this report, which I had in my pocket, was Senator Snyder. I have the report here. I am willing to submit it to Senator Snyder and ask him if it is not the same report which he read this afternoon in the meeting room of the committee.

I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, can the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman name one member of the committee who voted in favor of the report who will say it is not the report they voted in favor of at that time.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will say, in answer to the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, that that was not my statement. My statement was that the Committee on Judiciary General did not, this afternoon, vote by majority in favor of any report.

There were twenty-four members present, eleven of whom voted for the report read this evening by Senator McClure. Seven members voted for my report; two members voted for Senator Woodward's report; and the others did not vote. It was the fact that the majority of the members present at the meeting this afternoon who did vote, voted in favor of the report read by Senator McClure; but it is not a fact that a majority of the members present voted for it.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I misunderstood the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman. It is perfectly understood, now, that eleven members voted for this report that I read.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, eleven out of the twenty-four voted for the report read by Senator McClure, seven for the report read by me, and possibly two for Senator Woodward's report. The others did not vote. And my statement was not that Senator McClure had read this evening a report other than was voted on this afternoon. My statement was not that there had been a substitution of any report, and the record will show—I was very careful in my language—that I said the report had not been voted for by a majority of the committee, and I made that statement and challenge its successful contradiction.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I was at the meeting of the Committee on Judiciary General this afternoon, and I will say that the only vote taken there was with regard to the report read by Senator McClure this evening—that no vote was taken on the other reports.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I think that is right.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Weingartner, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, if I may be permitted to say just a word, I think the members on the Committee of Judiciary General who were present this afternoon will agree to this: the question before the committee was the question of the adoption by the committee of the report read this evening by the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure. There were twenty-four members of the committee present, and eleven voted for the report; seven voted against it, and six did not vote,—which substantiates the statement by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that only eleven out of twenty-four members voted for this report. I think that is correct.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a further question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, will state his further question of personal privilege.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I regret that I do not have a written speech, prepared by myself or anyone else, in support of the report which I have submitted. However, I do not desire to let this opportunity go by without making a few remarks in this connection.

The Senator from Dauphin has taken occasion to make remarks complaining that this committee has not been able to function properly by reason of the fact that it did not have any funds appropriated for its use. I call the attention of the Senate to the fact that this resolution was substituted,—gotten up in a hurry, referred to committee, passed out of committee and passed by this Senate in the face of a resolution which had been presented to this Senate after having passed the House of Representatives and been referred to that same Committee on Judiciary General, which resolution provided amply for the appropriation of money for the use of this committee. And when that resolution, known as the Moore Resolution, came over from the House, I, as a member of that Committee on Judiciary General, requested that committee and its chairman to grant a hearing on that Moore Resolution, so called; and, for the first time in my twenty years' experience in this body, the Committee on Judiciary General refused to grant a hearing. It refused to grant a hearing on that Moore Resolution. That was the first time, as I say, in twenty years that I have known of any committee in this Senate to refuse a public hearing on any matter before it.

So it does not lie in the mouth of the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, or anyone else, to complain that this Committee did not have any funds at its command.

Mr. President, let us not fool ourselves. This Committee has done a wonderful work, we all admit, and the public knows. But has it done all that it could? Has it done all that it should have done? I claim it has not, Mr. President. I do not challenge the honesty of the chairman of this committee,—self appointed as he was; I do not challenge the honesty of any member of this committee or of the sub-committee, for I believe that they are honest men; but I do say that this committee which has reported tonight was conceived in politics, carried out in politics, and stopped in politics,—and the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania know that to be the truth.

Mr. President, in all these meetings there was an invisible government controlling the actions and the functions of that committee. We were obliged to wait until orders were received. I was in a wonderful position to observe these things for I was in the minority, and I had a wonderful time seeing the other fellows squirm.

Mr. President, during all this time we have been conducting these hearings we could have been going deeper into things than we did.

Mr. President, I am not here to apologize for things we did not do, but I ask you to look at the record in this case. Look at this report. Look at the record that was based on the public records of this meeting today, or yesterdy, possibly, and find where we have goten to the brink of what we were looking for and all of a sudden we were ordered to fold up our tents and go home; and accordingly we have done so. So we are here tonight to make this report to you, Mr. President. I do not know what the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, has in mind. I do not know what was in back of this thing. But I do know that this resolution under which we were acting provided, among other things, that we should investigate the political activity of the public utility companies, as far as the Public Service Commission is concerned; and it has been called to our attention that these public utility companies have been very active in politics, that they have spent large sums of money, perhaps. Did we try to find the facts at the root of anything of that sort? Not a bit. I, Mr. President, as a minority member of that committee, suggested, from time to time places where that information might be obtained, and I was overruled by the majority of the committee.

So I do not claim any particular credit, Mr. President, for having done a good job in this case. While I do say, and I am frank to admit, the committee has done wonderful good, yet if we had gone at it in an unselfish and nonpolitical way we could have accomplished much more than we have accomplished with the invisible government controlling our action.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I am not surprised that the Senator from Bucks has to take a drink of water while he is making speeches, and I am altogether unlike him in that I can write my own speeches, I do not need anybody to write my speeches, as he does.

I want to look at the record a minute. The Senator called for the record. When John Fox Weiss, counsel for the Public Service Commission, was on the stand, I was examining him and I asked him this question: "In your judgment have the Public Service Commissioners served the public or the public utilities companies?"

"Mr. Buckman: That is not a fair question.

"The Chairman: I am going through with this examination, Senator."

Senator Buckman is a lawyer. He voted for this resolution. He was put on the Sub-Committee of Managers and he never discovered that he was a minority member until the time we talked about quitting and then at a public meeting he suggested that he was a minority member. I wish to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that the Senator from Bucks was never present on a Thursday during the hearings that were held. He always went home Wednesday night. I want to call the attention of the Senate to the fact that had he been interested, as I was interested, he might have made some worthwhile suggestions in the very inception of this investigation, and he might have helped mightily with his legal knowledge and ability. I want to say that he did not and I want to say further that if he thinks this investigation has not gone far enough, we had on one occasion a matter before us that was taken up in the House and it was spread over the newspapers as being the most sensational testimony that was given, and that was the Menke situation. I read that the Assistant Secretary, Mr. Tevell, testified—I do not know whether he did or not—that he appeared before the Sub-Committee. Mr. Tevell may have been in an outside room, but I know very well that when this matter of Menke was brought up it was suggested—and Senator Buckman will remember who brought the subject up—as to whether Mr. Menke had not agreed to release his rights, and then it was suggested that we would find out from the Public Service Commission, get the record and see whether Mr. Menke had agreed, and it was reported back, if I mistake not it was reported back by the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, that Mr. Menke had agreed to release his rights, and the Senator from Bucks, as the attorney for the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad, was the counsel in that case against Mr. Menke. Now, if the Senator from Bucks means to attack anything that this Sub-Committee of Managers has done, then I tell him as Polonius told his son Laertes, "Beware of entrance to a quarrel." Of course we might have gone on with this investigation and continued it for a month or a year or five years, but I submit that the Senator from Bucks never thought of going into this investigation any farther until within the last week or two, when he knew that we were going to stop and that the time for the report was at hand.

Now let us be fair with each other. I am making an attack on him because I think he deserves it, because he chose to talk about the politics of this thing. The Senators will remember that the first resolution I presented was a resolution for an investigation by the Senate and House, the Judiciary General Committees. The resolution, of course, said that the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee was to be the Chairman, but this first resolution was for an investigation by the Senate and House. I did not know at that time anything about the political complexion of the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee of the House nor of the member that he might have appointed thereon. We could have had an investigation here with the House and Senate, the Legislature in charge of the Public Service Commission, but the politics started from that moment, not by the people who finally came to the managers on the sub-committee of managers. In self defense we had to proceed to make this investigation ourselves.

I am glad that the Senator from Bucks agrees that we have done a good piece of work. I think we have. I think we have done a great deal of good. I think that good will be reflected in the passage of wise legislation. I think it will be reflected in the better administration of public utility affairs, and it may be that it will finally be reflected in some conclusive manner on the most important thing in this whole affair, and that is the rate business, and that is such a technical matter that you do not want me to attempt to discuss it with you tonight.

Mr. President, I think I am through. I do not want to offend the Senator from Bucks, but I do not want him to make any charge of any sort against me. There has been a great deal of pressure, a great deal of criticism, and I do not intend to let any charge rest upon me that I can resent with proof, and, if necessary, will debate this some more.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I never reply to a personal attack. I do not consider that there is any reply necessary to the attack made upon me by the Senator from Dauphin. I, however, do wish to correct just one statement that he made. I know he made it innocently, and that was with reference to the Menke case, which was considered in the executive sessions of this Sub-Committee. He is in error when he says that I was counsel in some case in which the P. R. T. certificate which was brought out before the House was involved. I was counsel for the Philadelphia and Reading Railway Company, and the certificate which Mr. Menke sought there was for Bucks and Montgomery Counties, but not in Philadelphia County. I knew of this certificate and I told this Committee very frankly, and they adopted my suggestion, that there was nothing in the Menke charges; and I submit that the people of Pennsylvania now agree that the case has been heard by the House Committee, that there was nothing in the charges brought out by Mr. Menke and that he was probably a man like many others over the State, who were looking for an opportunity to get a little notoriety and publicity, which he has succeeded in doing, and that is all there is to it.

Mr. President, that is all I have to say.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I believe the Senator from Dauphin, Mr. Earnest, has answered most of the remarks of Senator Buckman. However, there are a few facts which I would like to bring before the Senate to refresh their recollection and renew their thoughts of what happened in those days in February when this investigation started. I believe it was the consensus of opinion of the members of the Senate that we should have a joint committee with the House. In fact it was the thought of those with whom I talked, and just about the time that that was crystalizing into a real resolution and real action our Executive came out in a Harrisburg newspaper in an interview in which he stated that he would not sign any resolution except the Moore Resolution. In other words, unless he was to be a part of this investigation, unless he was to appoint men, members of this investigating committee, he would not sign the resolution. Bear in mind all the time that the Governor was the one who made the charges. No man should make charges and then want to pick his own jury.

I think that sufficiently covers the resolution. Now I will be very much interested to have Senator Buckman rise here tonight on this floor and explain to us what he means by the control of the invisible government, or the influence of the invisible government, or any other way he wishes to put it, in connection with this Committee on which I have served. I would like him to give names, facts and instances when this terrible invisible government reached over this investigating committee. We were very much in harmony on this committee until one day Senator Buckman walked in and announced himself a villain. I was very much surprised. I never knew that he was a villain, and I do not think so today, but he stated it in there. I want him to rise and say something about this invisible government.

In addition to that I would like him to state when and where and how any member of this committee squirmed. Who made that remark? We have no leads in this investigation. I became a member of this investigating committee and I thought it would be very hasty, I thought the Governor would come over here and supply this committee with facts, give us something to work on in the beginning. We asked him for those facts, and when he sent his own counsel before us, we asked him to go before the Governor and secure what information he could and he came back and told us that the Governor had nothing for us. All the witnesses that came before this Committee, particularly in the beginning of the investigation, we had to bring ourselves, and then others were developed. And so we went on and then the tenth day of March came, we made our preliminary report and after we made our preliminary report, a week or two later, the Governor's counsel became very much interested. He came before us with a number of scraps of paper, on which he had noted who wrote to him, or who called to see him in Philadelphia, and all of those suggestions which he offered led us into blind alleys. We were tired of that, we were ready and prepared to carry out the thoughts of the resolution, but these facts were getting us no place. We asked him if he knew anything further and the remark he made was that he knew perfectly well he was on a fishing expedition, and we did not think the winter time was any time to fish in Harrisburg.

I would like the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, to reply what he means by invisible government and what members of the committee squirmed.

Mr. WOODWARD: Mr. President, as Senator Buckman does not arise, I will. I want to say that I am in a minority of one of the Board of Managers and I acknowledge that I squirmed from time to time. I found very bad air in the Caucus Room until we got the ventilators. I want to say that the only invisible government that I have ever discovered in my political life is that of my good wife.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, what he means by control of this committee by an invisible government.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I mean just what those words simply in the English language.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would ask the Senato from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether he has any facts.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, any facts?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, yes, the Senator from Bucks Mr. Buckman, should have facts.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, whether he was present at the executive session of our committee,—as long as he seeks to bring this out,—when we were delayed by phone calls to members from sources outside the committee, and it was suggested—in a jocular vein, too—that if General Martin were to run the committee, and be consulted in everything that was done, he should be in the next room, and not have to make so many phone calls.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I remember those remarks I would ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, whether Senator Earnest telephoned General Martin on that occosion?

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I would reply to the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, by asking if he knows he did not

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I do not know anything about it. I am asking the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I do not know any more than I have stated.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I would also ask the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, when any member of the committee squirmed.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I have squirmed many times

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I have, too; but I mean any other member of the committee.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I did not mean that literally in the way it has evidently been taken; I did not mean that in the light in which the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure has taken the word "squirm". I have seen many members of the committee appear to wish that things were over.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr Frazier, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. FRAZIER. Mr. President, I feel that this whole exhibition is one of which none of us should feel very proud. In the first place, we start out by discussion of what took place in the committee meeting—who voted this way and who voted that way, when, as a matter of fact, it was distinctly understood that we were to discuss nothing that took place in the committee meeting as to how each individual person voted on each individual report.

The report known as the majority report was to be held over until today, with permission for one of the so-called minority members to have confidential control of that report, in his own possession, so that he might have an opportunity to prepare a minority report. I, myself, at the meeting objected to that; I thought if the minority were to make a report, they could make a report from the facts that were brought out in the investigation, without having to analyze the other report. I was overruled. The suggestion was that the minority report be prepared by ten o'clock this morning. The answer was that it would take a good deal longer time than that to get it up. It was then fixed for a meeting of the committee at four o'clock this afternoon.

I am wondering, when the Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, made the remark that he had no time to have his speech written or prepared,—I was wondering whether he had in mind that he might have had the assistance, in the preparation of his speech, of the one who prepared his report for him. I am wondering whether Senator Buckman had time to prepare as lengthy a report as he had before him and read tonight without having left the Senate Chamber for more than a very few minutes today.

Early this afternoon I read in the Evening Bulletin, which must have come from Philadelphia not later than the two-fifteen train, a statement made by the Governor as to the advantage which was coming to him by the action to be taken by the Committee on Judiciary General at its meeting this afternoon, several times in the paper, saying "as it is alleged".

I am wondering whether or not the Governor, or someone speaking for the Governor, had possession of that report which was given to Senator Buckman in confidence in order that he might be quoted in the newspapers this afternoon before the committee met tonight.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I want now to defend Senator Buckman. He did not have that report.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HARRIS: Mr. President, I think this discussion tonight is entirely personal with the members. I think the thing that the public is most interested in is the report. I have heard a great deal about the executive meetings which were held by this committee. All the information that I needed I read in the newspapers, of the secret meetings. All these harmonious meetings were held in such subdued voices that they were heard out in the corridors, so all this discussion tonight has been known to the public for many days, because I read it all in the newspapers, it was not necessary for any member of the committee to divulge any of the secrets, they were all public matters, every secret of this committee was a public matter. I think the important thing tonight is to discuss this report. There have been many personalities here tonight and there is nothing that I can see that has been accomplished for the good of the State.

Now it would take rather a long time to discuss this report, but I want to call your attention to page 9, where it says: "Finally, we believe that a commission should be appointed to study and report to the next regular session of the legislature." Now, in the event that this committee would bring out in their report a comprehensive program and suggest a change in the law that would bring relief to the people of Pennsylvania, would "the next regular session of the legislature" mean that there could not be a special session? I have no doubt that this report could be completed in perhaps a period of not more than six months, and in that event the people would not have any relief for almost two years, and I believe that the next regular session is a very subtle way of preventing a special session, if necessary.

Then I desire to call attention of the members of the Senate to these words of Senator Earnest: "Honest, fair, reasonable and statesmanlike manner in which this was prepared." The honest, fair and reasonable statesmanlike manner. It states here: "This commission should consist of the Chairmon of the Judiciary General Committee of the Senate; with one other member of the Senate of Pennsylvania appointed by the President Pro Tempore; the Chairman of the Judiciary General Committee of the House; with one other member of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker; and three additional members to be appointed by the Superior Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania." There is no place in this report where mention is made of the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, who is more responsible for this investigation than any other man in the State. There is no provision for the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania to be represented on this Commission and I submit to the members of the Senate if that is a fair, honest, reasonable and statesmanslike program.

Mr. WEINGARTNER. Mr. President, I am not going to enter into this discussion. In answer to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Frazier, I want to say, so that the entire membership may understand, that the report read by Senator McClure tonight was not in the hands of Senator Buckman, or myself, here today or at any other time.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I believe I can assure all the members of the correctness of Senator Weingartner's statement.

In reply to Senator Harris: The rate making body of our government is the legislature and not the Governor. Why the Governor was ever designated as the one to nominate the members of the Public Service Commission I know not. The responsibility is with the General Assembly. That is a constitutional fact, I believe. I am told so at least by a number of lawyers. Therefore if this Public Service Commission is to be revamped, I cannot see why the Governor of the State should be given any consideration, as he is in no way responsible for the result. It rests with the Legislature. The courts have to find the facts and therefore they might be considered as an interested body.

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Rial, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. RIAL. Mr. President, I did not intend to say anything, but I rise to a matter of personal privilege at this time, and I want to say that as far as I am personally concerned, as one of the so-called majority members of this committee, I knew nothing of what brought about my appointment as a member of this investigating committee. I did not seek that position, and because I am a novice in this body, I felt it my duty to perform whatever task was cast upon me, and when I went into this investigation I went into it with certain preconceived ideas as to the Public Service Commission.

More than 40 years ago in this Commonwealth the Supreme Court decided in a case which involved an examination into that charter of one of the corporations exercising public functions in which certain rate making powers were given to it by its charter. The Supreme Court of this Commonwealth at that time that the matter of rate making was essentially a legislative matter. That position was adopted by the Supreme Court of this Commonwealth and has been followed in all cases from that time down to the present, and that is the attitude which has been taken by the Supreme Court of the United States. So that the question of Public Service Commission, its powers, its functions, its jurisdiction and its practices are essentially a matter of the legislative branch of the government. We are confronted here today, and we have been confronted for some years past, by the encroachment of the Executive on legislative functions, I think the problem which confronts us here tonight, in view of this report, and in speaking as a member of this Committee and giving expression to my own idea as to what this matter is all about, I think we should get down to fundamentals and understand what we are talking about, what our background is and what we are trying to arrive at.

For myself, I went into this investigation with two thoughts in mind: First, has there been any corruption or venality on the part of the Public Service Commission? Second, what are the weaknesses in the Public Service Law, and how can those weaknesses be corrected? If this is a legislative function which the Public Service Commission exercised, then it is the duty of the General Assembly to properly regulate that body.

Now the unfortunate part about the Public Service Commission, in my judgment, is this: that it has not been put into the Constitution of the Commonwealth, by a proper enactment, which would remove it from and relieve it of the politics which we hear so much about in connection with it, and I submit to you, Mr. President and members of the Senate,—we hear a good deal about ripper bills, we hear about ripping out this council and that council and the weakness in the Public Service Law is the fact that it is subject to this influence, this possibility that it can be ripped out of office at each succeeding term of the legislature. Necessarily, then, the exercise of the powers of this body are weakened by this possible attack which may be made upon it and the members of the Commission are more or less inefficient. I may say, or not as efficient as they might be if they were not subject to this possibility of unexpected removal.

Now, we were, in the early history of this country, in almost a precise parallel to the situation which we are laboring under today. In the early history of the nation, the Federal courts, all the Federal courts except the Supreme Court have been created by congressional action,—and in the early days there was a continual effort made on the part of the Congress of the United States to destroy the district court, the circuit court of the United States, whatever other courts there were,—simply because the Federal Courts, except the Supreme Court, were not under constitutional control.

Now, with these two points in view, that I had in mind, namely, the question of venality and the question of weakness in the law relating to the Public Service Commission,—that was my idea in acting as a member of this committee. So far as the politics of the situation is concerned, I have indicated that I neither sought nor asked to be upon that Committee, and no one has indicated to me at any time, in any manner, how I should act while upon that Committee. No one has attempted to so say to me; and in subscribing to this so-called majority report my sole thought was,—and the high spot, in my judgement, in the report is this: that the Public Service Commission should be an independent body, just as independent in the discharge of its functions as the courts; and if you had the courts today in the same position in which you find the Public Service Commission,—susceptible to removal by legislation, you would have confusion worse confounded in the courts today. This situation obtains with regard to the Public Service Commission simply because the Public Service Commission is not under constitutional constraint.

Now, there are a number of weaknesses that have been developed as this report indicates, and there are many suggestions in Senator Buckman's report to which I can subscribe, and likewise in Senator Woodward's report; and I think tonight indiscussing this problem we ought to approach it in a sane and sensible manner. Carnegie once said that no controversy was ever settled rightly that was settled in the heat of the controversy, when there was a feeling of anger or antagonism.

I think the problems submitted to us are legislative problems —exclusively so—and that we ought to approach them sanely, sensibly and coolly, and in an endeavor to serve the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in the best way we can, with the benefit of the experience and the training and the information we have before us, and nothing else in view,—regardless of politics.

I do not think there is any dispute, for I believe there is unanimity of sentiment here that the committee did the very best it could. We went fishing,—our Chaplain might have said we were fishing all night and we caught nothing. We were fishing for weeks and caught nothing,—and we could keep on fishing, we could keep on fishing until Doom's Day; and we had so many apt illustration of how difficult it is to get at the bottom of things. We made an honest effort,—we think we have made an honest report.

Now, I haven't any criticism of Governor Pinchot, not in the slightest; I think he has done a great service to this Commonwealth in bringing attention to things that are important; but I submit, Mr. President, in all fairness to this body, and in the light of the experience we have in the past, the prophet and the legislator have not been well combined in one man.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Harris.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Harris, whether he has any advance information with respect to a special session of the Legislature.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I will reply to the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, by saying I have not.

Mr. President, I would now like to interrogate the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Centre, Mr. Scott, whether there was any discussion in his committee as to giving the Governor representation on this commission.

Mr. SCOTT. Mr. President, I am not a member of the committee.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, I would ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, the same question,—was there any discussion in the committee relative to giving the Governor representation on this commission?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, there was, yesterday, an endeavor to have a harmony report.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, what conclusion did they arrive at at that hearing?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, no conclusions were arrived at.

Mr. HARRIS. Mr. President, was there any agreement made at that time that the Governor should be represented?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, if a harmony agreement could be reached, that was a possibility.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. O. B. Poulson, offered the following prayer:

Infinite God, Thou hast created us for Thine own good pleasure. Yet, in Thy wisdom, Thou hast granted unto each of us the privileges of free, moral agents. We may refuse to hear Thy voice; to heed Thy commands; or to live such lives as Thou hast ordained. Or we may choose to live always in tune with Thy infinite wisdom, and order our footsteps in accordance with Thy commands. As sons and daughters of Thine own creation, help us this glad morning hour to be at peace with Thee and with the world about us.

In the beginning of our tasks this day may we hear thy challenge to Israel, saying: "Wash ye, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine eyes; cease to do evil; learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow." For, "If ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it."

We would not seek our own way nor our own will this day; we seek to know the will of Him who came to lift up the holy, to bind up broken and bleeding hearts, and to bring justice to the downtrodden and the oppressed. Grant unto us all the benediction of Thy presence. We ask it in Thy name. Amen.

BILL ON THIRD READING (SPECIAL ORDER)

The SPEAKER. The Chair lays before the House the Special Order for the day, House Bill No. 1351.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1351, entitled:

An Act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I want to ask your indulgence with me for a brief a time as I can make it to give you some facts, which I have endeavored to gather pertaining to the highway situation in Pennsylvania.

As I said to you yesterday, I introduced resolution number 30 for the sole purpose of securing information that would enable us to intelligently pass upon the different road problems that were coming before this session of the legislature. I had no other motive than that.

I want to say at the outset that I intend to vote aye on this House Bill No. 1351, establishing a rural road system in Pennsylvania, but I do not believe that we should embark upon this new program without having before us all of the facts that we can possibly gather together.

I think it is known to every member of this House that some twenty years ago the then Senator from the county from which I come, later the Governor of this state, enacted a road program in Pennsylvania, a road system that was to take in the main highways and the main arteries of this state. That was gradually extended until we added to the highway system of Pennsylvania approximately a thousand miles every biennium, and we were building up five hundred miles. Every thinking man knew that was a condition that could not go on, so, in 1929, under the leadership of some of the men connected with our roads committee of this House, they sought to get for the first time since 1911 a real road program in Pennsylvania, in order that we might complete the thousands of miles of unimproved roads that were on the highway system, there are miles of road on the highway system that have been on their possible twenty years. It was the belief of those men, and it is my belief today that that is a prior lien on any road funds that we have.

There are today approximately three thousand miles of that road system that are uncompleted, and it seems to me that before we go into anything, before we embark upon any program of road construction in this state, we ought to keep our pledges and our promises to the people of Pennsylvania, who live upon those roads, who for years have been promised that because that they are upon a state highway, the state is going to connect them with an improved road and develop that road.

I went away from the 1929 session with the feeling that we had done a constructive piece of work with reference to our highway program and that we were all done with the log rolling of the past if you could call it that. I think there were something like five or six hundred bills in the 1929 session asking for pieces of road, and then a general bill was put together and everybody was allocated some, and everybody went away happy, even if they didn't get a road, but that was changed by the 1929 plan.

During the last year, the new Governor of this state went before the people of Pennsylvania, and said that he was going to take over, but that he was not going to be able to build perhaps right away, but that he was going to take over twenty thousand miles of rural or township road; that is about twenty-five percent of the township roads in the state of Pennsylvania; that he was going to be able to relieve the taxpayers of this state and those townships of about $10,000,000 a year, and that he was going to be able to take that from the highway funds without increasing the taxes in any way. In fact, he felt that he could reduce the burden of the automobile owners of the state of Pennsylvania by reducing the motor license and drivers' license fee.

Now, we have come into this session, pursuant to that statement of the Governor of a twenty thousand mile rural road program, and this bill was constructed by the committee after consultation with all of the different counties, and it is now before you for passage: taking over twenty thousand miles of road, but that does not pledge the department or the administration to any particular program or plan of expenditure of the moneys of this state upon that system. We have had no statement as to how this is to be maintained, how much per mile is to be spent upon its maintenance, no statement as to how many miles are to be built in the next biennium. When I asked for that information from the Department of Highways, the answer, which took two weeks to prepare and sent back to us in answer to this resolution, stated that it is impossible to supply this information, the program for the next succeeding biennium being dependent upon the money available as well as the action on House Bill No. 1351. Well, House Bill No. 1351 was the one about which we were inquiring, and House Bill No. 1351, in so far as the allocation of mileage to the counties is concerned, was all set up under agreement with the different counties, after a consultation of weeks by the Chairman of the Roads Committee. It seems to me that this department insulted the intelligence of this legislature when it gave an answer to that resolution in that manner. It was practically saying to us, as has been said privately by people from the highway department, that practically it is none of the business of the legislature, how much money is going to be spent upon this road program, that it is an administrative matter. Now, I do not so read the Constitution, and I do not so understand the functions of the legislature, that it is not our function to appropriate and allocate the money that we have.

Let us look at the figures that are submitted, and you will recall that the answer said that it was impossible to supply this information because it was dependent upon the amount of money available. We have a budget, it is the purpose of the budget to tell us how much money we have available, being an attempt to anticipate what may be done, and certainly it is inconceivable to me that this Highway Department or the Administration would attempt to embark on a program to commit this state to take over and maintain twenty thousand miles of road without a definite program based upon the estimates of the budget. They have done it in other instances in the budget. The figures are here, if you can check them through the budget far enough. I have endeavored to gather my figures from two different sources, and they check up within a million dollars of each other. I am not going to burden you with the manner in which I arrived at these figures, but I have them here, and if any one is interested, after this meeting they can come to me and I will show them to him.

There will be approximately $91,000,000 in the motor highway fund in the next biennium, after we have deducted what we might call the overhead of the department, some costs of maintenance, deduct the amount that will go to the cities and other items. From that $91,000,000 has not been deducted the replacement of roads and bridges in the construction of flexible types, and the construction of rigid types, or grading or drainage which the department has estimated in its budget for this coming year at about $11,720,000. So, we may be safe in saying that there is, after taking care of these things that are set forth in the budget, that the department wants to do, $78,943,000, or approximately seventy-nine millions of dollars, left in the motor highway fund for the purpose of taking care of 20,000 miles of road and for any other construction that the legislature deems it necessary by act to appropriate for any specific purposes.

Now, why couldn't the department have answered to that effect in this letter? Why couldn't they have shown they had a balance? Why couldn't they have said that in accordance with the pledges of the Governor in his campaign they are going to spend twenty-millions of dollars or, as has been reported the Governor said, that he is going to spend twenty-five millions of dollars upon these roads? Please stop just a moment to think about that: we are going to spend twenty-five millions of dollars upon this rural road system in the next biennium. Do you realize that that twenty-five millions of dollars will do no more than maintain these roads in the very cheapest possible manner in which you can maintain them. There are approximately 6,000 miles of improved road on that system, and if we take that 6,000 miles on the basis of the cheapest kind of maintenance that we can possibly have, figuring it at $700 a mile, which means that you can do very little in the way of expensive maintenance, it will take $4,200,000 for the year or $8,400,000 for the biennium. Then we have 14,000 miles left of unimproved road. That 14,000 miles of unimproved road if we maintain them on a $300 mile basis per annum—$300 a mile will only allow us to clean out the gutters and the ditches, scrape the road and repair the pipes and drainage under it perhaps here and there and in a very few places dump in a little material. That will cost $4,200,000 a year or $8,400,000 for the biennium.

If that program is pursued, we could build about 700 miles of road on that rural system. When I say we can construct about 700 miles of road, we could construct only 700 miles at about $6,000 a mile, and that would mean a road of about nine or ten feet in width, and $6,000 a mile would only be the oiling of the road, and perhaps a little stone and binding put upon it here and there; the cheapest possible kind of construction that you can conceive of could be built for that $6,000 a mile. So, with the $25,000,000 that would be expended in the biennium, you men who are going back to your people —who are going to be pleased because they are going to get 20,000 miles of road—are going to face this danger, as I see it, in 1932 when a lot of you come up for reelection and want to come back to this legislature, you are going to find a pile of people in your district who expect to-morrow that the State is coming in there with a program to maintain and improve these roads and get the farmer out of the mud. I ask you whether under this plan it is going to be possible to get them very far out of the mud with an expenditure of $25,000,000? If more than $25,000,000 is taken, if higher types of roads are build, if greater amounts of money are expended on maintenance, then there is not going to be very much left in this $78,000,000 that can go to the further building of the 3,000 miles of road that remains unbuilt on the state highway system, and for the extension of our roads, for the widening of our roads and many other things that have to be done by the Highway Department.

It seems to me most vital and most valuable to this legislature that we should have some definite statement from the department as to what it intends to do, in order that you men may see for yourselves before you go home, before you find it is too late for 1932, before you find it is too late to do anything about it that what you expected to have done you left in the hands of the department and the department handed you what they thought was the kind of thing to do.

Now, there is another phase to this kind of construction. According to the figures under the first Pinchot administration, it cost $2,671 a mile to maintain an oil-bound, broken stone road, which is the light type of construction, while the cost of the maintenance of the concrete road was about $450 a mile. In other words, is it poor economy to build a lot of these roads, to take over 20,000 miles of road and build them of this cheap construction, in order that we can say that we built a lot of roads, in order that we can please some people temporarily, when we are loading upon the people of the state in the future a maintenance cost that is staggering? If we proceed with this program at the rate of $25,000,000 for the biennium, in ten years time the cost of maintenance and construction of 700 miles of road, as I have stated here, will amount to fifty million dollars a biennium. In other words, let me repeat that: within ten years time on the program, as set forth, that can be done on twenty-five millions of dollars a biennium, we are going to arrive at the staggering figure in ten years that is costing $50,000,000 per biennium to maintain this rural road system.

Everybody knows that we have been on a great upward rung in the income of the Highway Department. We know that the curve of income on the chart has gone up quickly, but within the past few years it has been sloping off, and it is the interpretation of some students of this problem that instead of an increase in the future, we may run a chance of a decrease in the next biennium in the motor license fees and gasoline taxes. That may be affected by some other things that may help to balance it up. That is something we ought to bear in mind.

As I said in the beginning, my purpose is not to defeat this bill. My purpose is not to say to you people that we should not go ahead with this, but my purpose is to say to the members of this House that as a body of representatives of the people, given the power to appropriate, that this House and this Committee and its members ought to determine the character and kind of program that we are going to institute. If we go forward with the facts, if the people of this Commonwealth are willing to undertake this program, which I now prophecy, Mr. Speaker, within five years time will lead to an additional program, because the people who live on the other 75 per cent of the roads are not going to be satisfied if they find that their neighbors are getting their roads improved. The history before us of the past 20 years will show that every biennium the members of this House will be here demanding from this legislature further extensions of this rural road plan, and I, therefore, prophesy, Mr. Speaker, that to-day in entering upon this 20,000 mile road program we are making a new departure that will lead us eventually to the place where the state will take over all the roads in the state, and when that comes to pass who is going to bear the burden of $50,000,000 in ten years; who is going to be required to maintain this program in the very poorest and meagre detail? Who is going to bear the burden? Are you going to come back on the motorists for more money; are you going to increase the gasoline tax of this state? If you are, and I happen to be a member of this House at that time, I want to turn back to the record of this session that I called it to your attention and that I pointed these facts out to the people of the Commonwealth. If the people are satisfied—the people in the built-up sections of the state who pay the greater part of the burden and who get the lesser return on this sort of a program, are willing to shoulder it, I am satisfied, but I believe these facts should be brought out and they should be before you. I believe we should first decide upon a program that would say that we are going to complete the pledges made to the people in this State during the past 20 years and build the 3,000 miles remaining of unimproved roads. I believe, in the second place, that we ought to say to the Highway Department, how much of the money that is left of this $78,000,000 are we to have allocated for this specific purpose, and then when we have gotten to that point, we should see whether we can undertake this rural program and how much of it we can undertake.

Mr. BIDELSPACHER. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House. First of all I want to commend the gentleman from Delaware for his extreme good nature. Years ago I learned a little line that runs something like this: "But if you grow up I would not have you slim, but large around the waist and good-natured, like him."

Much of what he said I can subscribe to. I have no intention to burden you with figures. You have had the figures and the figures are in the budget. The budget sets forth with accuracy the estimated revenues for the biennium and sets forth in detail just how much can be used for construction purposes during the coming biennium. This bill if enacted into law, as you have already been told, will take on in round numbers 20,000 miles of existing township roads on the state highway system. Now, of course, there will be a clamor for the improvement of these roads. I remember very distinctly when in 1911 the roads were taken on in the original Sproul system that from that time on there was a clamor and there was pressure back home in every county for the construction of roads, but we proceeded with caution and twenty-one years have elapsed since 1911 and in that twenty-one years we have constructed the finest system of roads you can find anywhere in these United States right here in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. It took twenty-one years to do that, to build ten thousand miles of improved roads.

Now, I want to call the attention of the members of this House to just a few things concerning House Bill No. 1351. In the first place, the roads therein designated were not put in there in a haphazard manner, but they constitute a well planned system. District Engineers and Township District Engineers months ago got in touch with the supervisors of the townships and the commissioners of first class townships and asked them to designate to the Division Engineer what they considered the most important township roads in their respective townships. With information at hand and with conferences by these division engineers and township division engineers and with supervisors they at times went out themselves and checked up on these roads and measured them and saw for themselves that they were important roads, and held meetings at school houses with these various township supervisors. After all that was done the division engineers in their respective divisions worked out a well planned tentative system. It was not done in a haphazard fashion but it was well planned. These roads, as you country members well know, begin somewhere and lead someplace. They start almost invariably with an existing state highway and lead through to another state highway. They are so planned that they serve as an outlet to the school centers and important villages and hamlets. Many of them are so planned that they bring the producer to the consumer. In other words, there was a well planned system in these twenty thousand miles that are to be taken over by the state.

Now, as I have indicated to start with, it will take time to improve these roads but first of all the important things is that as soon as the state highway department assumes the maintenance of these roads just that quickly these townships will be relieved of the burden of maintaining those roads. As a practicing attorney representing twelve or fourteen townships in my county of Lycoming, I know that many of these rural townships are right up against it financially to maintain their roads. In many instances they have gone into court and asked for ten additional mills to the ten mills allowed by law; in other words, twenty mills that they levy for road tax purposes on the assessed valuation of the township. Now, when this bill is enacted into law, as soon as it is signed by the Governor, or as soon as the department takes the roads over on the date designated in this act, just that soon will these townships be relieved of the burden of maintaining the roads.

New occasions teach new duties. The increase in the production of milk in the various rural sections and the necessity of bringing the farm products, together with the milk, to market leads to the conclusion that we must have this well planned system of rural roads in order eventually to help the farmer to get his products to the market.

The taking over of these twenty thousand miles of road will mean the transfer to the state, as Mr. Turner has indicated, of roughly one-fourth of the township roads in each county. In the words of his Excellency, the present Governor of the Commonwealth, it will be the largest, most comprehensive and most important system of road construction ever undertaken at one time to his knowledge by any state or by any nation in the world.

The great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania cannot stand still, we dare not, we must not and we will not stand still. The commonwealth in this road building program must move forward, and I ask you to give an overwhelming vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken.

Mr. DeFREHN. Mr. Speaker, not having heard my name called I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER. The House has a rule that provides that "No member shall be permitted to record his vote who neglects to vote when his name is first called by the clerk."

The Chair is aware of the fact that the attention of a member is frequently diverted during the calling of the roll, so that he does not know when his name is called. We consider it most uncourteous and we can conceive of no business that is so important that cannot wait for the two or three minutes that are required to call a roll. The Chair asks that this rule be suspended and that the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. DeFrehn be permitted to be recorded as voting "aye." If there are no objections the gentleman will be so recorded.

Mr. LOSE. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear by name called and I wish to be recorded as voting "aye."

The SPEAKER. Under the same circumstances the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Lose will be recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. WAY. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear my name called and I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The SPEAKER. Under the same circumstances the gentleman from Clearfield, Mr. Way, will be recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. MARCKS. Mr. Speaker, I did not hear my name called and I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The SPEAKER. Under the same circumstances the gentleman from Lehigh, Mr. Marcks, will be recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. CAUFFIEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The SPEAKER. Under the same circumstances the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Cauffiel, will be recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. GILLETTE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The SPEAKER. Under the same circumstances the gentleman from Bradford, Mr. Gillette, will be recorded as voting "aye."

RESOLUTION

EXTENDING SYMPATHY ON DEATH OF HONORABLE NICHOLAS LONGWORTH

Mr. C. C. A. BALDI, asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 14, 1931.

While yet in love with life and raptured with the world, Nicholas Longworth, speaker, statesman, artist and gentleman, swiftly passed into that dreamless silence of the dead;

Tolerant, tactful, fair and honest, he takes his place in history as an outstanding wielder of the gavel in our National House of Representatives;

Born of wealth, reared in luxury, educated without stint, when man's estate arrived he mixed and mingled with the crowds and on his own he climbed the mountain peak;

The artistry of the skilled musician, the aggressiveness of the politician, the fearlessness of the statesman, the fineness of the gentleman, combined to make a man, respected by his fellow men;

While eager kindly winds were kissing every sail of life's frail bark and carrying on to better, richer ports, he struck the unseen rock that lurks beneath the silver sea and now the billows roll above that stricken craft and he is gone;

With many milestones left unpassed upon the road of life and ere the setting sun had cast its taller shadows to the east, he wearied of the trail and fell asleep;

A life whose every moment gleamed with love of friends and every hour was studded thick with jewels of memory became too soon a sad and sorrowing tragedy; therefore be it

Resolved, That in the passing of the Hon. Nicholas Longworth, the House of Representatives has lost a fair, impartial and fearless speaker, and a member who possessed the qualities of genuine statesmanship;

That the Nation has lost a strong and outstanding figure who contributed his all to the common good;

That the district he represented has been deprived of the services of one who knew its needs and whose public career was a credit to it;

That while we feel the ineffectiveness of any act of ours to in any way assuage the grief and loss of those who must deeply mourn his loss, we extend to them our deepest and most profound sympathy;

That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Chief Clerk of the House to the widow of the Hon. Nicholas Longworth, and to the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States, and that they be spread upon the Journal of this House.
